real life is the birthplace of the best stories the tales related in lines from the times are drawn from real life lacking the length of a short story these tales are pithy reflections on life as it is encountered by the author from a little girl s conversation on a park bench a grown man flying a kite in the church yard a daughter s attempts to rein in an indulgent grandfather a homeless man or a drug influenced woman seeking direction an adventure getting children off to school strangers passed along life s journey all combine to entertain and delight these are not sermons by any means but hey are parables of life where one finds a lesson taught a prejudice challenged or a value uplifted lines from the times is a mirror held up to our age reflecting our beauty and our blemishes there s love in these pages there s sadness for love not shown there s acceptance here there s rejection we can find ourselves tucked inside the stories ourselves at our best and at our worse
