news and politics critically examines television news bulletins still the primary source of information for most people and asks whether the wider pace and immediacy of 24 hour news culture has influenced their format and style over time drawing on the concepts of mediatization and journalistic interventionism stephen cushion empirically traces the shift from edited to live reporting from a cross national perspective focussing on the two way convention in political coverage and the more interpretive approach to journalism it promotes challenging prevailing academic wisdom cushion argues that the mediatization of news does not necessarily reflect a commercial logic or a lowering of journalism standards in particular the rise of live two ways can potentially enhance viewers understanding of public affairs moving reporters beyond their visual backdrops and reliance on political soundbites by asking journalists to scrutinize the actions of political elites interpret competing source claims and to explain the broader context to everyday stories considering the future of 24 hour news a final discussion asks whether new content and social media platforms including twitter and buzzfeed enhance or weaken democratic culture this timely analysis of news and politics is ideal for students of political communication and journalism studies as well as communication studies media studies and political science a choice highly recommended title january 2017 this book is an interpretive analysis of political campaigns in america instead of focusing on how campaigns are designed and run it investigates the role campaigns play in our american politics and the close symbiosis between campaigns and those politics the text examines how campaigns are an important manifestation of how we do politics in this country hallmarks of this text include showing how campaigns can undermine our democracy and asking how democratic they and by extension our politics really are demonstrating that the ability of the media to accurately fairly and deeply report on campaigns has been severely compromised both because of the growing distance between campaigns and media outlets and because of the structure of big media corporate ownership and its tight relationship to big money it asks important questions about the media including how do the media reporters in particular cover campaigns what pressures and forces shape what and how they present campaigns what is the impact of the ever increasing chasm separating campaigns and the media how does the close tie between corporate mainstream media and super pac money affect campaign coverage how does the ability of campaigns and media to segment voters into ever smaller slices influence how campaigns are covered tracking the continuing growth of unregulated private unaccountable dark money in campaigns as a threat to our democratic elections and politics democracy rests fundamentally on transparency and accountability sunlight and our campaign laws and norms now allow and encourage exactly the opposite largely because of decisions by the united states supreme court beginning in the 1970s evangelical christians decided to become involved in our nation s political life by becoming republican partisans today they are widely considered the republican party s most reliable constituency in the process american politics has become more bitter chaotic divisive and now dysfunctional there is a significant bipartisan consensus that the republican party bears the most responsibility for the state of our nation s politics this is not an endorsement of democratic policies only an assessment of why our government no longer gets anything done what is often ignored though is the role evangelicals are playing in what is happening this book connects the dots between evangelical theology and evangelical politics the key factor in both is their no compromise attitude that sees negotiations as a betrayal of moral principles confident as they are that they are doing god s work here on earth the result as this book shows is bad politics and bad religion both of which are out of step with the views of most americans it concludes with suggestions for what the nation and evangelicals themselves can do to open the door to our government being able to function again and to the nation healing some of its divisions
