Buck A Memoir Buck A Memoir Part I The Early Years 1940-1960 Chapter 1 Born Under a Bad Sign Introduces Bucks challenging early life poverty hardship and the harsh reality of growing up in a rural community Chapter 2 The Call of the Road Details Bucks restlessness and yearning for something more leading to his decision to leave his hometown and embark on a journey Chapter 3 Finding My Feet Follows Bucks struggles and triumphs as he navigates the unfamiliar world of city life finding work and learning to survive on his own Part II The Road to Redemption 1960-1980 Chapter 4 The Turning Point Introduces the defining event in Bucks life that forces him to confront his past and take responsibility for his actions Chapter 5 Second Chances Explores Bucks efforts to rebuild his life finding solace in community and purpose in helping others Chapter 6 Finding Love Focuses on Bucks journey to find love and build a family despite his past mistakes Part III Legacy 1980-Present Chapter 7 Leaving a Mark Shows Bucks continued work and dedication to his community inspiring and empowering those around him Chapter 8 The Price of Wisdom Reflects on Bucks life experiences the lessons he has learned and the wisdom he has gained over the years Chapter 9 Leaving a Legacy Concludes the memoir with a powerful message about hope resilience and the enduring power of human connection 1000 words Sample Excerpt Chapter 1 Born Under a Bad Sign The dust devils danced across the cracked earth swirling like miniature tornadoes mimicking the turmoil churning within me The sun beat down mercilessly a relentless furnace baking the parched land My name is Buck and I was born under a bad sign in a place where hope withered like a forgotten flower 2 My early years were a blur of hardship poverty etched into the very fabric of our existence The rusty tin roof of our shack creaked under every gust of wind a constant reminder of the precariousness of our lives My father a hardworking man broken by a lifetime of back breaking toil found solace in the bottom of a bottle his laughter a hollow echo in the empty silence of our home My mother a woman with eyes that held the weight of a thousand sorrows toiled tirelessly her love a shield against the harshness of our world I grew up fast learning to survive on grit and determination The dirt roads that snaked through our desolate landscape became my playground the whispering wind my confidante I learned to read the signs of nature to find solace in the whispering leaves and the singing birds But I also learned the bitter taste of despair the gnawing feeling of being trapped in a life that offered little hope The world outside our little corner of the universe seemed vast and unattainable I yearned for something more something beyond the cycle of poverty and despair that threatened to consume us I dreamed of escape of finding a place where I could finally stand tall and be free Chapter 7 Leaving a Mark The sun dipped below the horizon casting long shadows across the bustling streets of the city I stood at the window of my modest apartment watching the world come alive with the promise of a new day My reflection stared back a man weathered by time and experience but with eyes that sparkled with a newfound purpose I had come a long way since those dusty roads of my youth Years ago I had made a conscious decision to turn my life around I had stumbled fallen and even lost my way but I had found redemption in the unwavering support of my community and the love of my family I had discovered a passion for helping others for offering a helping hand to those who had lost their way just as I had once done My journey was not about forgetting the past but about learning from it It was about recognizing the power within each of us to overcome adversity and build a better future I had found my voice my purpose and my place in the world I had become a beacon of hope a reminder that even in the darkest of times there is always a chance for redemption a possibility for a new beginning And as I looked out at the city I knew that my journey was far from over I had a legacy to leave behind a story to tell a life worth living I was Buck and I had finally found my way home

george leslie mackay 1844 1901 the famous canadian presbyterian missionary who came to northern formosa taiwan in 1872 and preached specifically with aborigines in mind is the subject of an interdisciplinary study by seven independent scholars interested in the nineteenth century imperial project and christian mission to china importantly mackay s mission defies such binary opposites as east and west the missionary a conduit of an earlier scottish canadian spirituality adapted to taiwan that allowed converts to appropriate the presbyterian faith on their own terms the mission field in which he operated a biculture of foreign initiative and aboriginal agency working hand in hand mackay's ordination of aboriginal ministers giving us the northern synod of the presbyterian church of taiwan pct was a bold departure from the imperial anglo canadian presbyterian norm so too his marriage to a taiwanese slave girl chhang mia and the arranged interracial marriages that he performed between select chinese ministers and female taiwanese graduates which included his two daughters mackay's missionary writing and famous autobiography from far formosa a fine specimen of the nineteenth century heroic memoir genre is notable for its defense of both gender and racial equality and despite its unmistakable patriarchal leanings mackay's repudiation of darwinism and belief in an early type of creation science therein also locates the so called barbarian bible man opposite such virulent racist theorizing as social darwinism and eugenics he was a dentist not an abortionist a relative unknown to most western scholars of religion mackay is taiwan's most famous native son represented on the national stage in 2008 as a sky god and taiwanese animistic deity of supernatural power and political influence par excellent although a product of the colonial times in which he lived post colonial scholars who ignore mackay his life and legacy clearly do so at some peril this book provides a comprehensive examination of the socio cultural and political context of modern china in terms of its interaction with america and the west focusing on the influence of the well known chinese writer and intellectual lin yutang 1895 1976 offering a unique study of the life and works of lin yutang it highlights his intellectual legacy in modern china and considers how his cross cultural life and ideas embodied the modern chinese cultural experience it notably focuses on lin's reputation as an outspoken critic of the infringement of human rights during the rise of the communist regime in china but also on his rediscovery of chinese cultural resources at a time when china's cultural contributions are increasingly relevant worldwide this book contributes to ongoing critical reflections of chinese modernity particularly in terms of its intellectual legacies but also to a renewed understanding of the cross cultural interactions between china and america and a re opening the dialogue and search for a new cultural understanding in chasing the intact mind amy lutz traces the history of the intact mind concept explaining how it influences current disability policy and practice in the united states lutz describes how we got to this moment where the severely autistic are elided out of public discourse and the intensive disability specific supports they need defunded or closed altogether lutz argues that focusing on the intact mind and marginalizing those with severe disability reproduces historic patterns of discrimination that yoked human worth to intelligence and that it is only by making space for the impaired mind that we will be able to resolve these ongoing clashes as well as even larger questions of personhood dependency and care an essential book it is required reading as we seriously engage one of the most important debates of our time sherry turkle author of reclaiming conversation the power of talk in a digital age from drones to mars rovers an exploration of the most innovative use of robots today and a provocative argument for the crucial role of humans in our increasingly technological future in our robots ourselves david mindell offers a fascinating behind the scenes look at the cutting edge of robotics today debunking commonly held myths and exploring the rapidly changing relationships between humans and machines drawing on firsthand experience extensive interviews and the latest research from mit and elsewhere mindell takes us to extreme environments high atmosphere deep ocean and outer space to reveal where the most advanced robotics already exist in these environments scientists use robots to discover new information about ancient civilizations to map some of the world's largest geological features and even to commute to mars to conduct daily experiments but these tools of air sea and space also forecast the dangers ethical quandaries and unintended consequences of a future in which robotics and automation suffuse our everyday lives mindell argues that the stark lines we've drawn between human and not human manual and automated aren't helpful for understanding our relationship with robotics brilliantly researched and accessibly written our robots ourselves clarifies misconceptions about the autonomous robot offering instead a hopeful message about what he calls rich human presence at the center of the technological landscape we are now creating
