the most important work of the towering intellectual of the middle ages thomas aquinas s summa theologiae remains one of the great seminal works of philosophy and theology while extending to subjects as diverse as law and government sacraments and liturgy and psychology and ethics in his third and final part of the summa theologiae thomas aquinas begins to address the life of christ lived out both in jesus himself and in each of the baptized through the sacraments this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface this ebook is the best known work of thomas aquinas c 1225 1274 although unfinished the summa is one of the classics of the history of philosophy and one of the most influential works of western literature it is intended as an instructional guide for moderate theologians and a compendium of all of the main theological teachings of the catholic church it presents the reasoning for almost all points of christian theology in the west the summa theologia is divided into three parts and each of these three parts contains numerous subdivisions part 1 deals primarily with god and comprises discussions of 119 questions concerning the existence and nature of god the creation angels the work of the six days of creation the essence and nature of man and divine government part 2 deals with man and includes discussions of 303 questions concerning the purpose of man habits types of law vices and virtues prudence and justice fortitude and temperance graces and the religious versus the secular life part 3 deals with christ and comprises discussions of 90 questions concerning the incarnation the sacraments and the resurrection some editions of the summa theologia include a supplement comprising discussions of an additional 99 questions concerning a wide variety of loosely related issues such as excommunication indulgences confession marriage purgatory and the relations of the saints toward the damned scholars believe that rainaldo da piperno a friend of aquinas probably gathered the material in this supplement from a work that aquinas had completed before he began working on the summa theologia
