The fourth edition of this popular combination text anthology integrates reading and writing skills. The approach of read and respond is unique; students are assessed for comprehension through summary writing rather than objective testing. After summarizing an article, students write a personal response because the summary and personal response are written in the students' own words. The instructor gains valuable insight into their vocabulary and writing ability as a result. Students develop proficiency in reading, writing, and critical thinking. The new edition retains the best features of the previous editions: it integrates reading and writing, offers step-by-step progression, includes models, exercises, and activities in each chapter, and provides additional readings for practice. New features include the following: a new improved two-color format plus overview maps of each chapter; a new introductory chapter discussing the reading process and main types of reading tasks; a new chapter offering a wide variety of methods to improve both general and specialized vocabulary; the addition of content area readings and/or excerpts from a college textbook in every chapter; new articles for student reading practice in a new chapter entitled "Additional Readings"; an increased emphasis and clarification of student goals, outcomes, and benefits; the addition of self-check review questions at the end of each chapter to help students review key concepts and consider personal applications of those concepts; the fourth edition is complemented by a revised instructor's manual which provides an answer key for all activities, proposed syllabi for a quarter and for a semester, as well as teaching suggestions and strategies.
