the reformation of the sixteenth century shattered the unity of medieval christendom and the resulting fissures spread to the corners of the earth no scholar of the period has done more than carlos m n eire however to document how much these ruptures implicated otherworldly spheres as well his deeply innovative publications helped shape new fields of study intertwining social intellectual cultural and religious history to reveal how lived beliefs had real and profound implications for social and political life in early modern europe reflecting these themes the volume celebrates the intellectual legacy of carlos eire s scholarship applying his distinctive combination of cultural and religious history to new areas and topics in so doing it underlines the extent to which the relationship between the natural and the supernatural in the early modern world was dynamic contentious and always urgent organized around three sections connecting the natural and the supernatural bodies in motion mind soul and death and living one s faith the essays are bound together by the example of eire s scholarship ensuring a coherence of approach that makes the book crucial reading for scholars of the reformation christianity and early modern cultural history news commentary and documents on current events in mexico and latin america as part of the larger ongoing movement throughout latin america to reclaim non hispanic cultural heritages and identities indigenous writers in mexico are reappropriating the written word in their ancestral tongues and in spanish as a result the long marginalized innermost feelings needs and worldviews of mexico s ten to twenty million indigenous peoples are now being widely revealed to the western societies with which these peoples coexist to contribute to this process and serve as a bridge of intercultural communication and understanding this groundbreaking three volume anthology gathers works by the leading generation of writers in thirteen mexican indigenous languages nahuatl maya tzotzil tzeltal tojolabal tabasco chontal purepecha sierra zapoteco isthmus zapoteco mazateco Ñahñu totonaco and huichol volume 1 contains narratives and essays by mexican indigenous writers their texts appear first in their native language followed by english and spanish translations frischmann and montemayor have abundantly annotated the english spanish and indigenous language texts and added glossaries and essays that trace the development of indigenous texts literacy and writing these supporting materials make the anthology especially accessible and interesting for nonspecialist readers seeking a greater understanding of Mexico's indigenous peoples.
