was it just a feather after taking the big leap into the unknown what are my future s possibilities am i heading in the right direction is there some force guiding me one morning my attention was drawn by the feather on the path was this some kind of a sign that i m guided by a force beyond myself an unexpected honor it happened on may 1 2011 on sunday afternoon with about seventy five friends former kickers and families of former kickers coaches my family and other friends from the church and community the thomasville athletic boosters club the thomasville athletic department and others from the community had made the arrangements they had raised enough money to replace the old original post and add one at the other end of the field this field is not only used for football practice and track and field but soccer is also played there it is probably one of the best facilities of its kind around this facility was named the allen brown athletic complex in honor of retired football coach allen brown so having the goal posts dedicated to me on that sunday afternoon was a great honor there were several speakers who said some very complimentary things pointing out the two beautiful new goal posts that were being dedicated to me then my attention was called to a plaque that was placed on the wall of the allen brown athletic complex i was overwhelmed by all the wonderful things said and the honor i received i was also amazed at the number of friends who were there to share this moment with me i really didn t think i deserved this much adulation as i told them i have enjoyed it so much because of all the rewards received in seeing these young men progress and become successful in their journey through life fascinating thoughtful and important jeff chu captures the fractures and conflict at a moment when the issue of what to do with l g b t people is tearing christian denominations apart does jesus really love me deserves to be widely read dan savage new york times book review in this timely work part memoir part investigative analysis a prize winning writer explores the explosive and confusing intersection of faith politics and sexuality in christian america when jeff chu came out to his parents as a gay man his devout christian mother cried and cried every time she looked at him for months as a journalist and a believer chu knew that he had to get to the heart of a question that had been haunting him for years does jesus really love me the quest to find an answer propels chu on a remarkable cross country journey to discover the god forbidden to him because of his sexuality surveying the breadth of the political and theological spectrum from the most conservative viewpoints to the most liberal he tries to distill what the diverse followers of christ believe about homosexuality and to understand how these people who purportedly follow the same god and the same scriptures have come to hold such a wide range of opinions why does pastor a believe that god hates me especially because of my gayness why does person b believe that god loves me gayness and all from brooklyn to nashville to california from westboro baptist church and their god hates fags protest signs to the pioneering episcopal bishop mary glasspool who proclaims a message of liberation and divine love chu captures spiritual snapshots of christian america at a remarkable moment when tensions between both sides in the culture wars have rarely been higher both funny and heartbreaking perplexing and wise does jesus really love me is an intellectual emotional and spiritual pilgrimage that reveals a portrait of a faith and a nation at odds
