a new book of verses of rumi by an award winning translator and poet this selection captures rumi in a rare mood and these are some of rumi s most passionate and heartfelt expressions each poem resonating with the intensity and fire rarely seen in english language before shiva says rumi i am constantly reminded is a miracle everything about him is absolute magic poetry in perfect rhyme and meter poured out of him as he whirled for hours on end or as he fell into various states of ecstasy and rapture there is movement in every verse of rumi there is music rhythm and breath in most of his poems in persian one of the so called ecstatic or intoxicated sufis of baghdad ab usayn al n r d 907 8 was famous for his quasi blasphemous utterances and shocking public behavior he was often enraptured by a passionate love of god that led him to eccentric acts that scandalized both ordinary people and the religious authorities besides yielding to divine love and beauty he would occasionally come near succumbing to bodily temptations and carnal passions despite n r s outrageous behavior junayd the moderate or sober sufi par excellence held him in high esteem kept corresponding with him and commented upon his controversial ecstatic sayings this book collects n r s literary legacy by surveying the sources for his life poems sayings and comments on the quran including an exchange of letters between him and junayd preserved in the cairo genizah and by discussing the authorship of the stations of the hearts which has been widely attributed to n r volume iii the remaining 65 psalms each of the 85 psalms 83 poems discussed in the previous volume of major poems of the hebrew bible has the highly remarkable feature of scoring an exact integer as the average number of syllables per colon sometimes seven or nine more often eight which may be called the central normative figure of biblical poetry this can only mean that the classical poets did count their syllables moreover they succeeded in bringing about a creative merger between various forms of numerical perfection and the structure of their songs which is generally underpinned by the correct articulation in strophes and stanzas the breakthrough of this discovery became possible on the basis of a a refined recipe for establishing the original i e pre masoretic syllable structure of the ancient hebrew and b a definition of the colon in those poems in which the correct colometry is difficult to delimit it can be established only by a three pronged approach tackling syntax prosody and semantics and able to combine them in this third volume the 65 remaining psalms are subject of structural analysis and once more are covered by full syllable counts although these songs do not seek to apply the exact integers they display the other forms of numerical perfection on more than one textual level so that they embody the same poetics this will be no different in volume iv which deals with job 15 42 and will be published as the final volume in the major poems of the hebrew bible project in a dialogue between haizi s poetry and the gospel of luke xiaoli yang offers a conversation between the chinese soul searching found in haizi s 1964 1989 poetry and the gospel of jesus christ through luke s testimony it creates a unique contextual poetic lens that appreciates a generation of the chinese homecoming journey through haizi s poetry and explores its relationship with jesus christ as the dialogical journey it names four stages of homecoming roots vision journey and arrival by taking an interdisciplinary approach literary study inter cultural dialogue and comparative theology xiaoli yang convincingly demonstrates that the common language between the poet haizi and the lukan jesus provides a crucial and rich source of data for an ongoing table conversation between culture and faith
