this book addresses important current and historical topics in astrobiology and the search for life beyond earth including the search for extraterrestrial intelligence seti the first section covers the plurality of worlds debate from antiquity through the nineteenth century while section two covers the extraterrestrial life debate from the twentieth century to the present the final section examines the societal impact of discovering life beyond earth including both cultural and religious dimensions throughout the book authors draw links between their own chapters and those of other contributors emphasizing the interconnections between the various strands of the history and societal impact of the search for extraterrestrial life the chapters are all written by internationally recognized experts and are carefully edited by douglas vakoch professor of clinical psychology at the california institute of integral studies and director of interstellar message composition at the seti institute this interdisciplinary book will benefit everybody trying to understand the meaning of astrobiology and seti for our human society gribbin has inspired generations with his popular science writing jim al khalili a scintillating collection of short essays that really does cover life the universe and everything from the mysteries of the subatomic world to the curious property of water that makes our planet inhabitable master of popular science john gribbin delves into the astonishing facts that underlie our existence some aspects of the quantum world really do seem impossible to common sense but have been proved correct by experiments other features of the universe appear obvious such as the fact that atoms are mostly empty space but this familiarity hides the truly amazing truths underpinning these observations and some things merely seem improbable but are also hiding a deep truth such as the fact that the moon and sun look the same size as viewed from earth this book will change forever the way you view the world the black swan is a standalone book in nassim nicholas taleb s landmark incerto series an investigation of opacity luck uncertainty probability human error risk and decision making in a world we don t understand the other books in the series are fooled by randomness antifragile and the bed of procrustes a black swan is a highly improbable event with three principal characteristics it is unpredictable it carries a massive impact and after the fact we concoct an explanation that makes it appear less random and more predictable than it was the astonishing success of google was a black swan so was 9 11 for nassim nicholas taleb black swans underlie almost everything about our world from the rise of religions to events in our own personal lives why do we not acknowledge the phenomenon of black swans until after they occur part of the answer according to taleb is that humans are hardwired to learn specifics when they should be focused on generalities we concentrate on things we already know and time and time again fail to take into consideration what we don t know we are therefore unable to truly estimate opportunities too vulnerable to the impulse to simplify narrate and categorize and not open enough to rewarding those who can imagine the impossible for years taleb has studied how we fool ourselves into thinking we know more than we actually do we restrict our thinking to the irrelevant and inconsequential while large events continue to surprise us and shape our world in this revelatory book taleb explains everything we know about what we don't know and this second edition features a new philosophical and empirical essay on robustness and fragility which offers tools to navigate and exploit a black swan world elegant startling and universal in its applications the black swan will change the way you look at the world taleb is a vastly entertaining writer with wit irreverence and unusual stories to tell he has a polymathic command of subjects ranging from cognitive science to business to probability theory the black swan is a landmark book itself a black swan praise for nassim nicholas taleb the most prophetic voice of all gg praise for the black swan a book that altered modern thinking the times london a masterpiece chris anderson editor in chief of wired author of the long tail idiosyncratically brilliant niall ferguson los angeles times the black swan changed my view of how the world works daniel kahneman nobel laureate taleb writes in a style that owes as much to stephen colbert as it does to michel de montaigne we eagerly romp with him through the follies of confirmation bias and narrative fallacy the wall street journal hugely enjoyable compelling easy to dip into financial times engaging the black swan has appealing cheek and admirable ambition the new york times book review from the hardcover edition
