this book argues that the trade distorting effects of advantages associated with soes are more severe from an economic perspective and the behavior of soes after receiving advantages is of more concern compared to private owned enterprises pois the premise is that the existence of soes per se is not the essential problem rather the underlying problems are i the disproportionate granting of advantages to soes compared to pois and ii the behavior of soes once they receive advantages the book offers a systematic analysis focusing on the various advantages granted to soes and their subsequent behavior its detailed analysis reveals the inadequacy of current wto rules and is complemented by a number of concrete proposals explores the poetics and aesthetics of the italian art film in rossellini antonioni fellini and other groundbreaking directors a cinema of poetry brings italian film studies into dialogue with fields outside its usual purview by showing how films can contribute to our understanding of aesthetic questions that stretch back to homer joseph luzzi considers the relation between film and literature especially the cinematic adaptation of literary sources and more generally the fields of rhetoric media studies and modern italian culture the book balances theoretical inquiry with close readings of films by the masters of italian cinema roberto rossellini vittorio de sica luchino visconti michelangelo antonioni federico fellini pier paolo pasolini bernardo bertolucci and others luzzi s study is the first to show how italian filmmakers address such crucial aesthetic issues as the nature of the chorus the relation between symbol and allegory the literary prehistory of montage and the place of poetry in cinematic expression what pasolini called the cinema of poetry while luzzi establishes how certain qualities of film its link with technological processes capacity for mass distribution synthetic virtues and vices as the so called total art have reshaped centuries long debates a cinema of poetry also explores what is specific to the italian art film and more broadly italian cinematic history in other words what makes this version of the art film recognizably italian
