burnt by democracy traces the political ascendancy of neoliberalism and its effects on youth the book explores democracy and citizenship as described in interviews with over forty young people ages 16 to 30 who have either experienced homelessness or identify as an activist living in five liberal democracies Canada Australia New Zealand the United States and the United Kingdom highlighting significant cuts to social and affordable housing astronomical increases in the costs of higher education and the transformation and erosion of state benefits systems Jacqueline Kennelly argues that democracy's decline is not occurring because young people are apathetic or focused on informal politics or unaware of their civic duties rather it is because of collective misunderstanding about how democracy is actually structured how individuals learn to participate and how growing wealth inequality has undermined the capacity of those at the bottom to meaningfully advocate for changes that might improve their conditions against a vivid and often heart-breaking backdrop of stories from young people struggling to survive and thrive under conditions of ever-expanding state retrenchment and inequality burnt by democracy makes a timely and impassioned plea for protecting and strengthening democracy by truly levelling the playing field for all this international handbook provides a detailed account of the education systems of 11 Southeast Asian nations including Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia Lao People's Democratic Republic Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand Timor-Leste and Vietnam it presents a systematic sector-by-sector explanation of how these national education systems deliver educational services and respond to national and international issues and challenges with 56 chapters the international handbook is the region's most comprehensive educational reference source in the first of its chapters the editors introduce the regional context and draw attention to the distinctive characteristics of each of the 11 systems southeast asia representing 8 5 of the world s population is as dynamic as it is diverse the international handbook charts progress and establishes a benchmark for documenting future developments it also provides a stepping off point for more detailed investigations of decision making processes and outcomes across the 11 national education systems this book is the most comprehensive account yet published about the education system in cambodia it covers all system levels and draws upon the knowledge and insights of a wide range of leading cambodian and foreign scholars the book focuses on how the system has developed and is making progress significant achievements over the past two decades are evident but many problems remain including the poor quality of teaching research and institutional management under funding is an ongoing obstacle but so too is a bureaucratic culture of resistance to change a history of weak governance and an anti reform sentiment deriving from a teacher centred and exam driven curriculum achieving international standards must now be the system s highest priority to this end the system must rid itself of conservatism complacency and manipulation by parochial vested interests educational assessment in a time of reform provides background information on large scale examination systems more generally and the south african examination specifically it traces the reforms in the education system of south africa since 1994 and provides a description of the advances in modern test theory that could be considered for future standard setting endeavours at the heart of the book is the debate on whether the current standard of education in africa is good enough if not then how can it be improved the aim of this book is to provide a point of departure for discussions on standard setting quality assurance equating of examinations and assessment approaches from this point of departure recommendations for practices in general and the exit level grade 12 examination results in particular can be made this book is ideal reading for principals teachers academics and researchers in the fields of educational assessment measurement and evaluation
