south asia is one of the most vulnerable areas of an increasingly disaster impacted world with cyclones earthquakes floods and droughts causing several casualties and disrupting lives and livelihoods every year yet the impacts of disasters are not equally distributed across the peoples of the region women and men experience disaster differently and their needs in the aftermath of disaster often differ bringing together perspectives from academics emergency response specialists and development practitioners the volume investigates to what extent and in what ways gender affects the course of post disaster reconstruction conversely it also explores in what ways gender politics may be altered by disaster and post disaster reconstruction the study includes a comprehensive overview of key issues facing women and men as gendered beings in reconstruction and development a targeted observation of specific south asian disaster contexts and a sustained discussion of case studies and their implications and lessons this book will interest scholars and researchers of disaster management rehabilitation studies gender environment ecology and sociology it will also be useful to institutions dealing with natural and man made disasters non governmental organisations and disaster recovery professionals pollsters are constantly worrying about our perceptions of politicians what do their other halves look like who looks best when eating a bacon sandwich should they even be eating bacon sandwiches in the first place for the voter though it all comes down to one thing the economy while good economic news can send popularity sky rocketing bad performance can blight a party s election chances for years but with policies often working with time lags it s rarely clear who is responsible for what especially when their stances on the biggest issues of the day immigration the eu the nhs are clouded in rhetoric rather than grounded in hard economic fact it s the economy stupid sets out to change al l that this incisive accessible guide explodes some of the most entrenched myths of british political debate does immigration help or harm our economy are austerity measures the best way to tackle a financial meltdown is the nhs in crisis with answers to all these questions and more this is essential reading for anyone who wants to know how their vote will affect their financial future in american church culture worldly benchmarks of achievement have all but blinded us to the true purpose of the body of christ a new model of the authentic church may be one of the most significant books written on the american church in decades it not only offers a scholarly analysis of the current state of the church but provides practical solutions the book offers a brilliantly well developed model for how to make church work more effectively if implemented it would provide a much needed paradigm shift in how we do church in america the books main contribution is that it provides a workable framework not only on how to birth new missionally minded churches but how to reform existing ones back to the authentic church of the gospels if its principles are taken and applied the book could alter the landscape of the american church which will be a breath of fresh theological air to a church that has lost its way in the new millennium the purpose of this book is not to just challenge and change the status quo its goal is to bring a real lasting transformation to how we do church the aspiration in writing this book is for it to be seen and read not just as a critical assessment of the condition of the american church but as a practical blueprint that will provide much renewed hope and purpose to the contemporary american church the bride of christ over the past decade international organizations ios and non governmental organizations ngos have increasingly focused their efforts on the plight of environmental migrants in both industrialized and developing countries however to date very few studies have analysed the influence and rhetoric of advocacy groups in the debates on environmental migration organizational perspectives on environmental migration fills this lacuna by drawing together and examining the related themes of climate change and environmental degradation migration and organizational studies to provide a fresh perspective on their increasing relevance in order to assess the role of ios and ngos in the environmental migration discourse and to understand their interaction and their ways of addressing the topic the book contains a wide range of contributions covering the perspectives of organizational sociologists political scientists anthropologists geographers lawyers and practitioners the chapters are organized thematically around the perspectives of key actors in the area of environmental migration including ios courts and advocacy groups the geographically diverse and interdisciplinary range of contributions makes this volume an essential foundational text for organizational responses to environmental migration this volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of migration studies international relations organizational sociology refugee law and policy and development studies world orders are increasingly contested as international institutions have taken on ever more ambitious tasks they have been challenged by rising powers dissatisfied with existing institutional inequalities by non governmental organizations worried about the direction of global governance and even by some established powers no longer content to lead the institutions they themselves created for the first time this volume examines these sources of contestation under a common and systematic institutionalist framework while the authority of institutions has deepened at the same time it has fuelled contestation and resistance in a series of rigorous and empirically revealing chapters the authors of contested world orders examine systematically the demands of key actors in the contestation of international institutions ranging in scope from the world trade organization and the nuclear non proliferation regime to the kimberley process on conflict diamonds and the climate finance provisions of the unfccc the chapters deploy a variety of methods to reveal just to what extent and along which lines of conflict rising powers and ngos contest international institutions contested world orders seeks answers to the key questions of our time exactly how deeply are international institutions contested which actors seek the most fundamental changes which aspects of international institutions have generated the most transnational conflicts and what does this mean for the future of world order
