most if not all grenadians have grown up hearing stories of la diablesse lagahou and sookooyant but have you ever wondered about the origin of these stories this book just doesn't re tell these stories it traces their origins and looks at them as being influential in helping shape our self identity and our interpersonal relationship in fact this book examines and critiques aspects of the grenadian sociocultural and sociopolitical culture that seek in many ways to minimize and suppress the individual's search for self identity especially as he or she tries to pursue knowledge that appears to be outside the socially accepted in doing so this book follows the author's journey as he analyzes old ideas and engaged with new ones also central to this book is that it seeks to help the individual develop his or her moral and ethical awareness this book was revealed within me when i began a self quest for truth over ten years ago the main theme of this book is truth for the most part truth has been left out of many of our lives due to our strict adherence to religious practices this book contains information for the poor well off and wealthy alike compounding information and experiences gathered in my current life my hope is that this book will be recognized as a tool to point others in the true direction of the real truth it is only then when one becomes enlightened to truth that a clear decision can be made by the self as to finding one's true self through the tools found in one's self in truth bio seer ashlamaz was born and raised in the windy city of chicago il as all who are sons and daughters of the most high god prophet began preaching to sick and shut in elderly at the age of eight years old prophet did as many being one of the actual prodigal sons and returned to his father in 1996 with a tenacity that was not the normal in his many journeys prophet has experienced one resurrection and the healing of hundreds having a strong prophetic anointing caused him to be misunderstood until he was enlightened to the true self the etheric after learning of himself prophet became aware of his purpose on earth as one of the many sons of the most high god having such a strong divine nature his only endeavor is to spread truth when asked what he saw as most important in the future of god's people his only reply was truth
