the appreciation of early christian and byzantine art as a sublime expression of religious thought and feeling is a comparatively modern phenomenon byzantine art is both static and dynamic static in the sense that once an image was established it was felt that no improvement was necessary dynamic in the sense that there was never one style and these styles or modes were constantly changing the story is not only complex in its unravelling but ranges widely over various media mosaic wall painting and painted panels sculpture in marble and ivory manuscript illumination gold silver and precious stones jewellery silk and rich vestments this enthralling account by a gifted medieval art historian should remain a standard work for many years to come back cover
