written in an engaging style and intended largely for a lay audience the evangelization of the world tells the remarkable story of how christianity grew from an insignificant jewish sect in the first century until by the beginning of the twenty first century it had become the world s first truly global religion the book is careful to explain historical context and mission theory but the foci of the narrative are the great personalities of mission the apostle paul st martin of tours st patrick st francis xavier john eliot count von zinzendorf william carey robert morrison david livingstone mary slessor albert schweitzer and many others who make this account of the expansion of the church a fascinating and often dramatic tale in addition the book does not neglect the great mission conferences of the twentieth century nor does it avoid the controversial aspects of mission that in many instances continue to vex the movement today perspectives on the world christian movement presents a multi faceted collection of readings exploring the biblical historical cultural and strategic dimensions of world evangelization writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners over 60 of them new to this edition portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global christian movement every one of the 170 articles and side bars offers practical wisdom enabling christians to labor together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth the fourth edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition many articles have been updated and revised this is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable over three billion people in the world have never heard the name of jesus christ the task of evangelizing these people seems monumental in this major study of world evangelization however edward dayton and donald fraser view the world not as billions of individuals but as thousands of people groups the dayton fraser strategy includes ten basic steps that analyze and define the goals in reaching these people groups and the obstacles standing in the way unlike other mission strategies this approach incorporates the social sciences and basic management principles into the context of god s sovereignty and of the church s responsibility to evangelize the world the book includes a comprehensive bibliography reflecting the authors extensive research in theology sociology anthropology and management john piper s bestselling book on missions draws on key biblical texts to demonstrate that worship is the ultimate goal of the church and that proper worship fuels missionary outreach piper offers a biblical defense of god s supremacy in all things providing readers with a sound theological foundation for missions this 30th anniversary edition of a contemporary classic now in paperback incorporates insights from the author s refined thinking over the past 10 years used extensively as a textbook for missions courses and a resource for ministries let the nations be glad provides a passionate plea for god centeredness in the whole enterprise of world evangelization and explores the role of prayer and spiritual warfare the book is essential reading for those involved in or preparing for missions work it also offers enlightenment for students pastors youth workers campus ministers and all who want to connect their labors to god s global purposes respected missions thinker robertson mcquilkin answers the question how is it with so many unreached peoples there are so few christians going mission agencies have different strategies and even within a mission or church there can be tension and division over strategy and details of how things should be done must we be so dogmatic on matters that the bible is not clear about can t we accept that god works in different ways among different groups of people the work of god is bigger than any fellowship or organization respected missionary and christian leader george verwer sums up his life experience with mission work as a sender a doer and a trainer and talks straight about what is really needed in missions in the 21st century to get the job done mission workers and organizations need a grace awakened approach no longer should mission agencies compete with each other or dwell on minor theological differences in out of the comfort zone verwer identifies the key elements for working together to win lost souls for christ rené padilla was one of the premier representatives of orthodox evangelicalism in latin america he consistently championed integral mission a holistic understanding of christian mission in which there is no artificial barrier between evangelization and social responsibility biblical faithful to scripture contemporary and inspirational the core message of this updated classic remains just as urgent as when it was first published twenty five years ago this revised version includes a new essay on the contemporary history of integral mission a history that began with the latin american theological fellowship progressed within the lausanne movement is bearing fruit globally through the micah network and challenges evangelicals to address the major issues of our day this hands on workbook has been designed for two kinds of people those who have a deep desire to serve god overseas and those who want to help them it has not been designed to persuade people to become missionaries rather it assumes an initial interest an early indication or drive somewhere inside that god may have more for you than you previously thought it is aimed at two primary readers college university students and young career persons as well as committed older adults facing the challenge of an early retirement or career change the information this workbook presents will also help churches campus groups schools missionary training centers and agencies to think and pray through short term and long term plans with those responding to god s call james f engel and william a dyrness offer a sympathetic yet courageous analysis of the challenges that north american and other western christian missions face the word evangelism evokes strong reactions among christians conflict about what it is whether to do it how to go about it and the desired results divides churches demonstrating the need for new theologies and methods that address today s religiously pluralistic and secular contexts this book offers a comprehensive treatment of evangelism from biblical models to contemporary practice frances adeney shows that understanding different contexts and approaches to evangelism and accepting the views of others on this crucial topic can help replace the evangelism wars social action vs proclamation with a more graceful approach to sharing god s good news with the world

john stott shows that christian mission must encompass both evangelism and social action he begins with careful definitions of five key terms mission evangelism dialogue salvation and conversion then through a thorough biblical exploration of these concepts stott provides a model for ministry to people s spiritual and physical needs alike back by popular demand this three volume work is now reprinted as a single volume this manual leads the student into a deeper broader mission understanding and vision by covering the biblical historical foundations the strategic dimensions and cross cultural considerations neo calvinism critically advances reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life birthed in the netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by abraham kuyper 1837 1920 and herman bavinck 1854 1921 it argued that a life before god entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence while the movement originated in the netherlands the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts this handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach its four sections chart the theological roots important original figures historical contours and the contemporary influence of neo calvinism across a diversity of fields the church growth movement has divided devout christians even though rainer is an advocate his aim here is to present an objective view of the movement its history the theology associated with it and the principles which seem to separate churches that grow from those that don't this introductory study course is the first of its kind to provide a comprehensive outline of world evangelism from the perspective of a local new testament church insights based on a commitment to personal evangelism and world evangelism will challenge and inspire teachers and students alike

as the end of time approaches we need to redouble our effort to respond to the lord's command to make disciples of all nations fueling the fire for passionate and consistent discipleship this study provides an exposition of the great commission and practical insights to participate in its fulfilment praise for demystifying discipleship compelling elucidating demystifying dr raphael thomas's major contribution on the subject of discipleship is a must read for every christian leader and believer involved in the great commission congrats brother raphael dr gerry o gallimore former president and ceo of yfc international retired senior pastor of metropolitan baptist church and author of living by faith what i really appreciate about dr thomas's approach is that the scope of the content is full and the reader is led step by step from beginning to end one of the elements that delivers a connective thread is the arrangement and articulation of the chapters the sections are thoughtful and smart and give an overarching succession that paints a bigger picture that is vital for the topic of discipleship dr steve mccoyle lead pastor of the 360 church sarasota florida and founder of smallcircle this volume is about simplifying our understanding of christian discipleship utilizing sound hermeneutical skills dr raphael thomas carefully exegetes the critical biblical texts to establish the need for a shift in our thinking this refreshing perspective on discipleship is a must read for astute christians and scholars dr david corbin former president of the caribbean graduate school of theology demystifying discipleship is a passionate and urgent call to all christians to engage in our primary mission of making disciples dr thomas passion and experience in making disciples can be felt on every page and not only inspires readers to get into action but also provides them with practical steps to become effective disciple makers pastor brian grant germantown christian assembly philadelphia pennsylvania
