my friend and colleague david coombe a fellow of christ s college informed me that a these 155 letters and at that time made my own tr scriptions it seemed to me that this was a magni cent account of the lives of two naturalists of the nineteenth century starting at the time that they were at christ s together in 1828 and going to 1880 when w d fox died just two years short of the death of charles darwin in 1882 of
