Avast me hearties! Create pirate-themed treasure hunts in your own home with this ultimate activity book. Get a clue! Pirate treasure hunt gives little pirates the chance to solve the clues and hunt down buried treasure hiding in their own home. Kids love a good treasure hunt, but not every child or parent has the time, patience, or skills to write out clues to hide around the house. These pages are already filled with dozens of removable clues written by pirates taking treasure hunters on themed searches all around the house with multiple pre-written clues, blanks for creating your own DIY treasure hunt, and bonus scavenger hunt games. One book can provide hours of fun for the whole family. Fun for every pirate with themes featuring sea monster mayhem and magical mermaid mischief. There's a fun hunt geared to every pirate in the home. Family bonding activity: the whole family can solve clues together as kids engage in imaginative play that turns any house, apartment, or living space into a pirate cove, sunken ship, a mermaid lagoon, or the darkest depths of the ocean. Unplugged fun for the youngest family members. The perfect rainy day activity. Kids become adventurers in their own living rooms with this entertaining book that's really a game. Perfect party planner. Not just for kids, this is the perfect activity book for the busy parent looking for ways to entertain guests at birthday parties, family functions, or any kind of gathering.

The first five minutes of a classroom experience are critical. The tone set in a session's opening minutes can significantly impact and influence in both positive and negative ways the quality and nature of the subsequent learning experience. How students spend that time can also have a positive impact on their learning in both the short and long term. When the opening minutes of a class are approached as an opportunity to build student connections, collaboration, and community, all learners benefit as more and more learning experiences occur in synchronous and asynchronous online learning environments. Strategies that both welcome students to online sessions and support student learning are increasingly important. Traditional icebreakers, while typically shared with a goal of building community and student engagement, can sometimes have unintended or even negative consequences on students. This text shares a collection of powerful opening activities that are designed to simultaneously engage students, build safe and connected classroom communities, and support student learning. All strategies are easily adapted and personalized to fit individual course and content needs including face to face synchronous online and asynchronous online learning contexts shared activities are aligned with associated learning science research and incorporate strategies that have been shown to support student engagement and learning such as retrieval practice active recall spaced practice and interleaving among other evidence based instructional strategies
