it is the simmering summer of 2001 in new york city heller is the youngest employee of soft tidings a messenger service whose motto is news with a personal touch at soft tidings a message is not handed over but told to the recipient and the messages as a rule are not especially good news heller prefers his bike to the mandatory rollerblades and he gets away with his maniacal bike riding because he is hands down the best deliverer of bad news this summer will be memorable for heller as he finds himself drawn into the lives of a wildly diverse cast of characters accidentally falling in love and relating to people in a whole new way from the hardcover edition giordano bruno and the geometry of language brings to the fore a sixteenth century philosopher s role in early modern europe as a bridge between science and literature or more specifically between the spatial paradigm of geometry and that of language through analysis of bruno s writings saiber exposes the verbal geometry of his language and shows how his writing necessitates a crafting of space and is in essence a lexicon of spatial concepts this study constitutes an original contribution both to scholarship on bruno and to the broader fields of early modern scientific and literary studies place setting perspective examines the films of the italian filmmaker nanni moretti from a fresh viewpoint employing the increasingly significant research area of space within a filmic text the book is conceived with the awareness that space cannot be studied only in aesthetic or narrative terms social political and cultural aspects of narrated spaces are equally important if a thorough appraisal is to be achieved of an oeuvre such as moretti s which is profoundly associated with socio political commentary and analysis after an exploration of various existing frameworks of narrative space in film the book offers a particular definition of the term based on the notions of place setting and perspective place relates to the physical aspect of narrative space and specifically involves cityscapes landscapes interiors and exteriors in the real world setting concerns genre characteristics of narrative space notably its differentiated use in melodrama detective stories fantasy narratives and gender based scenarios perspective encompasses the point of view taken optically by the camera which supports the standpoint of moretti s personal philosophy expressed through the aesthetic aspects which he employs to create narrative space the study is based on a close textual analysis of moretti s eleven major feature films to date using the formal film language of mise en scène cinematography editing and sound the aim is to show how moretti selects organizes constructs assembles and manipulates the many elements of narrative space into an entire work of art to enable meanings and pleasures for the spectator

this important anthology addresses established notions about third cinema theory and the cinema practice of developing and postcolonial nations the third cinema movement called for a politicised film making practice in africa asia and latin america one which would take on board issues of race class religion and national integrity the films which resulted from the movement from directors such as Ousmane Sembène Satyajit Ray and Nelson Pereira dos Santos are among the most culturally significant politically sophisticated and frequently studied films of the 1960s and 1970s however despite the contemporary popularity and critical attention enjoyed by films from asia and latin america in particular third cinema and third cinema theory appears to have lost its momentum rethinking third cinema seeks to bring third cinema and third cinema theory back into the critical spotlight the contributors address the most difficult and challenging questions third cinema poses suggesting new methodologies and redirections of existing ones crucially they also re-examine the entire phenomenon of film making in a fast vanishing third world with case studies of the cinemas of india iran and hong kong among others in this study while providing a detailed survey of the conditions of production of post dictatorship argentine cinema the author focuses on a selected corpus of films in order to explore how issues of memory mourning and trauma have been dealt with in the cinema that followed the advent of democracy in 1983
