the reverend barry lynn explains why the religious right has it all wrong in the wake of the 2004 presidential election the religious right insisted that george bush had been handed a mandate for an ideology based social agenda including the passage of a marriage amendment to ban same sex unions diversion of tax money to religious groups through faith based initiatives the teaching of creationism in public schools and restrictions on abortion led by an aggressive band of television preachers and extremist radio personalities the religious right set its sights on demolishing the wall of separation between church and state the reverend barry lynn is a devout christian but this propaganda effort disturbs him deeply he argues that politicians need to stop looking to the bible to justify their actions and should consult another source instead the u s constitution when the founding fathers of our great nation created the constitution they had seen firsthand the dangers of an injudicious mix of religion and government they knew what it was like to live under the yoke of state imposed faith they drew up a model for the new nation that would allow absolute freedom of religion they knew that religion united with the raw power of government spawns tyranny yet the religious right now seems distrustful of those principles inherent in the constitution viewing the separation of church and state only as a dangerous anti christian principle imposed upon our nation in reality the separation between church and state has been an important ally to religion with the state out of the picture hundreds of religions have grown and prospered religion doesn't need the government's assistance any more than it is practical or appropriate for religious doctrine to be fostered in the government or taught in public schools as an explicitly religious figure speaking out against the religious right lynn has incurred the wrath of such personalities as pat buchanan jerry falwell and pat robertson who once said lynn was lower than a child molester lynn has continuously taken on these radicals of the religious right calmly and rationally using their own statements and religious fervor to prove that when they attack the constitutionally mandated separation they are actually attacking freedom of religion in piety politics the reverend barry lynn continues the fight educating americans about what is at stake explaining why it is crucial that we maintain the separation of church and state and galvanizing us to defend the honor of our religious freedom halloween has been referred to as the devil's holiday but all 365 1/4 days were created by and belong to jesus if satan usurps even one day it is our christian duty and responsibility to reclaim and redeem it in the name of our lord are the imaginary ghouls and goblins of halloween any more wicked than the jolly elf called santa claus or the easter bunny should the church stop celebrating these holy days the bookends of our faith as well instead of battling the spiritual enemy on halloween the church is guilty of crossing swords with one another we fight among ourselves not about how to celebrate halloween but whether it should even be observed jesus is more the reason for the season on halloween than he is at christmas the church must realize it is forfeiting halloween as an opportunity to glorify the prince of peace the one who has given us the victory over the prince of darkness and his evil minions the way the truth and the life has conquered death and the grave by dressing up in costumes and portraying frightening creatures who at one time caused us to fear and tremble we are not glorifying satan rather we are poking fun at the serpent whose kingdom has been plundered by our savior and whose head has been crushed should we celebrate halloween the question is how can we not halloween hallowed is thy name offers a believer confidence and joy in expressing the greeting happy halloween
