the golden dawn flourished in great britain and france from 1887 to about 1901 it appears to have been an outgrowth of the german order orden des gold und rosenkreuz in the golden dawn one studied qabalah astrology tarot divination geomancy scrying astral travel alchemy ancient egyptian religion theurgy freemasonry alchemy enochian magic christian mysticism etc it flourished until the london adepts rebelled against their leader this act of betrayal destroyed the order fragments of which carried on under other names

when it was first released secret inner order teachings of the golden dawn was a significant addition to the golden dawn corpus and made available second order golden dawn magic material which was unavailable to those who at that point considered israel regardie as the only source of golden dawn magical material the papers contained in this book provide the much needed keys to understand the golden dawn system in its entirety however just as the golden dawn was not just intellectual information gathered under one heading but contained oral instruction to make the system come alive so this material came with extensive traditions that make it useful to the student for the first time golden dawn authority pat zalewski who was trained by the inner order adepts of the golden dawn reveals the key to this material the release of the second edition of this book has given zalewski the opportunity to add more material including some of the obscure stooping dragon formula which israel regardie considered the secret to mastering the stock market lord manticore takes the opportunity to improve the original diagrams which had some inaccuracies and were poorly drawn and provide the book in full colour for the first time the late victorian period witnessed the remarkable revival of magical practice and belief butler examines the individuals institutions and literature associated with this revival and demonstrates how victorian occultism provided an alternative to the tightening camps of science and religion in a social environment that nurtured magical beliefs regardie s resonance with the golden dawn derived in part from the intuitive knowledge that he demonstrated in his 1932 book the tree of life with the sponsorship of dion fortune he joined the stella matutina in 1933 but quickly became disillusioned with its egotistical leadership and departed less than two years later after attaining the grade of adeptus minor three years after that he published his landmark collection the golden dawn making the secret rites and teachings of the on again off again order available to a wider public for the first time and making possible today s resurgence of interest in the order several years later regardie and crowley parted company after an acrimonious public clash of personalities regardie returned to the united states and studied chiropractic medicine in new york he served in the army during world war ii and afterward moved to los angeles to open a chiropractic clinic and also work as a reichian therapist he had studied psychology and psychiatry with several notable teachers and was a strong proponent of jungian analysis all his life as well as the more controversial work of wilhelm reich both writers are known among the 20th century s most unique and controversial psychological theorists whose writings straddled the border between science religion and myth and incorporated a strong element of sexuality it is easy to see how this emphasis blended well with regardie s magical and esoteric studies the hermetic order of the golden dawn was founded in the late 1887 its system founded upon variously obscured sources to include karr sibley and hockley while the system was very diverse in its sources of information and incorporation a main focused in sewed upon the division of the order through strife and content the hermetic order of alpha et omega was born the division was clear and the future of the hermetic order of the golden dawn was divided with a new focus in place macgregor mathers continued his movement toward an obedient and well focused fusion of adepti the athortemple continued to develop an invaluable system of inner order grades and subgrades with this unique system in place the temple presented itself superior in lecture than all other temples and orders the various lectures
