an illuminating look at how filmmakers have taken us around the world under the sea and to the center of the earth over the course of a century milwaukee express even for those who have never read jules verne the author s very name conjures visions of the submarine in twenty thousand leagues under the sea the epic race in around the world in eighty days the spacecraft in from the earth to the moon and the daring descent in journey to the center of the earth one of the most widely translated authors of all time verne has inspired filmmakers since the early silent period and continues to fascinate audiences more than a century after his works were first published his riveting plots and vivid descriptions easily transform into compelling scripts and dramatic visual compositions in hollywood presents jules verne brian taves investigates the indelible mark that the author has left on english language cinema adaptations of verne s tales have taken many forms early movie shorts serials feature films miniseries and television shows and have been produced as both animated and live action films taves illuminates how as these stories have been made and remade over the years each new adaptation looks back not only to verne s words but also to previous screen incarnations he also examines how generations of actors have portrayed iconic characters such as phileas fogg and captain nemo and how these figures are treated in pastiches such as journey 2 the mysterious island investigating the biggest box office hits as well as lower budget productions this comprehensive study will appeal not only to fans of the writer s work but also to readers interested in the ever changing relationship between literature theater and film he shows that realism arrived comparatively late to the maritime provinces and argues that the emergence of a realist style corresponded with a dramatic period of economic and cultural disruption during which the eastern provinces were transformed from one canada s most developed prosperous and promising regions into one characterized by chronic underemployment and underdevelopment the region is thus torn between its memory of an earlier more traditional social order and its present experience as a modern industrial society these tensions are embedded in the maritime character and have affected not only the lives of its people but the imaginations and texts of its writers the stories of thomas raddall hugh maclellan charles bruce ernest buckler alden nowlan alistair macleod donna smyth budge wilson and david adams richards have been deeply influenced by the cultural shifts they have observed in the last two decades a host of new literary voices has emerged and creelman also explores the works of such writers as ann marie macdonald lynn coady nancy bauer deborah joy corey carol bruneau alan wilson leo mckay and sheldon currie he shows that these maritime artists share a common regional identity that shapes their narratives as they find their own paths through the tensions which envelop them
