the paintings executed in 1964 1967 by american artist mark rothko for the rothko chapel in houston represent the fulfillment of the artist s lifelong ambition and a breakthrough in twentieth century art unlike previous sets of paintings commissioned for the seagram building and harvard university the chapel commission allowed rothko to determine the architectural setting and lighting in which the paintings would appear this proved to be the catalyst for a new mode of pictorial dynamics based on a kind of interaction of paintings architecture and light previously unknown no painting in the set could be understood in isolation from the rest or apart from its place in the architectural setting the rothko chapel paintingsexplores this interdependence of paintings and place as viewers move about the chapel s octagonal enclosure over whose walls the fourteen panels are continuously distributed they discover systems of pictorial interactions which become the terms or characters of a cosmological drama in which the viewer is a necessary participant in the act of vision the embodied viewer is prompted not merely to witness but also to reenact that questioning of human destiny which has preoccupied the western spiritual tradition this elegant collection commemorates the timeless words and inspired thoughts of dominique de menil a woman whose life s task was to inspire a better world with her husband john dominique founded the inter religious rothko chapel in houston in 1971 the de menils dream was for the chapel to promote interfaith dialogue human rights and the arts they famously commissioned the artist mark rothko to create a suite of paintings specifically for the chapel gathered here is a selection of de menil s thought provoking speeches interviews letters and other commentaries beginning with her inaugural address for the rothko chapel and concluding with remarks she offered at a human rights award ceremony in 1997 the writings testify to de menil s profound belief in the transcendent dimension of life and in the motivating power of the principles of truth and justice more relevant today than ever her visionary ideas seem both prescient and deeply important in the strife ridden world of the 21st century a first look at the recently restored rothko chapel a world renowned destination for spiritual renewal with all new photography and scholarship of the renovated building and campus published on the occasion of its 50th anniversary the rothko chapel home to 14 monumental modernist paintings by the pioneer abstract expressionist mark rothko is an interfaith sacred space dedicated to global human rights art and spirituality located in houston the chapel was founded in 1971 by arts patrons and philanthropists dominique and john de menil who placed their utmost faith in rothko s vision to express the profound the miraculous and regard for the sanctity of the human spirit in this oasis for the intellect and the spirit through photographic testimony and the insights of scholars this large format volume gives an intimate look at this sacred space where visitors seek solace and inspiration within this truly ecumenical sanctuary featuring rothko s iconic paintings pamela smart discusses the spiritual side and stephen fox puts the architecture in the context of houston the chapel has been reworked within an expanded campus to enhance the experience for its many visitors as viewers sit in stillness or move about the chapel s serene octagonal enclosure the reinstalled skylight better reveals the nuances of rothko s powerful panels and allows for better connection to the outdoors as conditions shift such as when clouds pass above houston built in 1971 for people of all faiths or none the chapel houses 14 monumental paintings by famed abstract expressionist mark rothko who had committed suicide only one year earlier upon its opening visitors responses to the chapel ranged from spiritual succor to abject tragedy the latter being closest to rothko s intentions however the chapel s founders art collectors and philanthropists dominique and john de menil opened the space to provide an ecumenically and spiritually affirming environment that spoke to their avant garde approach to catholicism a year after the chapel opened morton feldman s musical work rothko chapel proved essential to correcting the unintentionally grave atmosphere of the de menil s chapel translating rothko s existential dread into sacred ecumenism for visitors author ryan dohoney reconstructs the network of artists musicians and patrons who collaborated on the premier of feldman s music for the space and documents the ways collaborators struggled over fundamental questions about the emotional efficacy of art and its potential translation into religious feeling rather than frame the debate as a conflict of art versus religion dohoney argues that the popular claim of modernism s autonomy from religion has been overstated and that the two have been continually intertwined in an agonistic tension that animates many 20th century artistic collaborations a celebration of houston s rothko chapel on its fiftieth anniversary featuring work by contemporary artists responding to its continuing impact artists and the rothko chapel celebrates the legacy of the rothko chapel in houston and globally since its founding in 1971 it features recent work by four contemporary artists who have drawn inspiration from the chapel sam gilliam sheila hicks shirazeh houshiary and byron kim and illustrates the 1975 exhibition marden novros rothko painting in the age of actuality shown at rice university the volume includes interviews with brice marden and david novros statements from the artists about their work s relationship to the chapel and reflections from local figures on spirituality identity and equality with new photography of the installations and of the recently restored chapel this book is a testament to the enduring impact of the non denominational space rothko created mark rothko 1903 1970 world renowned icon of abstract expressionism is rediscovered in this wholly original examination of his art and life written by his son synthesizing rigorous critique with personal anecdotes christopher the younger of the artist s two children offers a unique perspective on this modern master christopher rothko draws on an intimate knowledge of the artworks to present eighteen essays that look closely at the paintings and explore the ways in which they foster a profound connection between viewer and artist through form color and scale the prominent commissions for the rothko chapel in houston and the seagram building murals in new york receive extended treatment as do many of the lesser known and underappreciated aspects of rothko s oeuvre including reassessments of his late dark canvases and his formidable body of works on paper the author also discusses the artist s writings of the 1930s and 1940s the significance of music to the artist and our enduring struggles with visual abstraction in the contemporary era finally christopher rothko writes movingly about his role as the artist's son his commonalities with his father and the terms of the relationship they forged during the writer's childhood mark rothko from the inside out is a thoughtful reexamination of the legendary artist serving as a passionate introduction for readers new to his work and offering a fresh perspective to those who know it well
