after examining the global system's political volatility at the dawn of the new millennium the book looks at how some of the identifiable system wide trends e.g. globalization democratization fragmentation etc may find repercussions in the asia pacific the book also addresses the question of comprehensive security in comparison with other regions in a wide range of areas subsuming economic security geoeconomics environmental security ecopolitics and human security in addition the book recognizes the idiosyncrasies of the region such as the defensiveness of most asian governments toward the protection of their financial markets against external forces following the regional financial crisis of the late 1990s much has been written about globalization as an economic and political concept the academic debate looks forward for explanations about the historical roots and development of this emerging phenomenon where the nation state s evolved into a system where nations are ruled by the dynamics of global interdependence globalization in the new era is characterized as a process where geographical political and cultural borders tend to dissolve the westphalia notion of sovereignty capitulates against the principle of political subordination as integration of local power ensuring national legitimacy henrichs tarasenkova argues against a long tradition of scholars about how best to represent luke s christology when read against the backdrop of ancient ways of constructing personal identity key texts in the lukan narrative demonstrate that luke indirectly characterizes jesus as the one god of israel together with yhwh henrichs tarasenkova employs a narrative approach that takes into consideration recent studies of narrative and history and enables her to construct characters of yhwh and jesus within the lukan narrative she employs richard bauckham s concept of divine identity that she evaluates against her study of how one might speak of personal identity in the greco roman world she engages in close reading of key texts to demonstrate how luke speaks of yhwh as god in order to demonstrate that luke acts upholds a traditional jewish view that only the god of israel is the one living god and to eliminate false expectations for how luke should speak of jesus as god this analysis establishes how luke binds jesus identity to the divine identity of yhwh and concludes that the lukan narrative in fact does portray jesus as god when it shows that jesus shares yhwh s divine identity
