this book is based on papers presented at the conference however it is not a typical publication of academic conference proceedings because the topics are not completely congruent with those of the conference some lectures that could not be held due to travel restrictions related to the coronavirus pandemic were submitted as book contributions in addition i also wrote a short contribution on the jewish history of the region which has been often neglected in previous presentations of the region the various authors for this volume have been intensively involved with the region in recent years however the authors do not only focus on the situation on the ground but also on the international context of the autonomous administration the conflict in syria is no longer just a civil war but a transnational conflict with important roles played not only by actors such as russia or the usa but also turkey or iran given the transnationality of the conflict and the role of the hegemonic powers these authors share thoughtful analyses from very different perspectives it is important to share these diverse views with the world so that the tragic conflict might become more comprehensible this does not mean however that i necessarily advocate each particular position taken by the varied contributors to this book the intent is to offer you multiple perspectives and certainly not a common narrative examines governance developments in the autonomous administration of north and east syria also known as rojava ten years after the emergence of the de facto kurdish administration broadening horizons is a series of international congresses dedicated to researchers including postgraduate students in the early stages of their careers who are involved in a number of different disciplinary areas in the study of the ancient near east and the eastern mediterranean the general aim of the conferences is to encourage discussion of new topics and to promote the exchange of ideas data and scientific information among students and scholars of many different specialties archaeology prehistory history anthropology archaeobiology and philology throughout the geographical area known as the ancient near east the 3rd of these congresses was held in barcelona spain from the 19th to the 21st of july 2010 in the universitat autònoma de barcelona following previous congresses which had taken place at ghent university belgium in 2006 and at université lyon 2 france in 2007 this volume includes not only the very interesting and diverse set of papers presented in barcelona but also the invited contributions of the key speakers these two sections are followed by a final paper by the editors about the trajectory of the bh conferences and about the particularities and difficulties confronting young scholars who are doing research in the near east the middle east is the birthplace of christianity and the home to a number of eastern churches with millions of followers this book provides a comprehensive survey of the various denominations in the modern middle east and will be of interest to a wide variety of scholars and students studying theology history and politics
