this is the best book on david lynch that has yet been published nochimson s book is essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary cinema brian henderson former chair of the department of media study state university of new york at buffalo filmmaker david lynch asserts that when he is directing ninety percent of the time he doesn t know what he is doing to understand lynch s films martha nochimson believes requires a similar method of being open to the subconscious of resisting the logical reductiveness of language in this innovative book she draws on these strategies to offer close readings of lynch s films informed by unprecedented in depth interviews with lynch himself nochimson begins with a look at lynch s visual influences jackson pollock francis bacon and edward hopper and his links to alfred hitchcock and orson welles then moves into the heart of her study in depth analyses of lynch s films and television productions these include
