a frank chronicler of postwar mexico's political contradictions nacho lópez 1923-1986 published the most critical images of his time in photo essays for magazines such as hoy mañana and siempre he photographed the streets of mexico city its pool halls pulque bars and the grim lecumberri prison with an almost classical eye all of his pictures are rigorously composed and contain no extraneous matter addressing only the necessary and the telling to achieve this concision lópez would often construct scenarios such as arranging for an actress to stroll past groups of men in the street and provoke their approval lópez's photos also have the special quality of appearing to eliminate temporal conditions so that their subjects are seized more in space than time in this manner lópez captured the corrupt as they fell from grace and the disenfranchised as they defied their poverty with camaraderie and improvised entertainments this latest issue of luna córnea is a full length monograph on lópez exploring all aspects of his oeuvre including his work on architecture dance and anthropology nacho lópez's work is little known outside of Mexico today luna córnea redresses that oversight
