Cardinal Christoph Schönborn, the editor of the monumental catechism of the Catholic Church, a worldwide best seller, provides a brief and profound commentary on the second part of the catechism, the sacraments. Schönborn gives an incisive, detailed analysis of the sacraments, providing a specific meditation for each week of the year on how to better live the Catholic faith with the aid of the sacraments and the Mass, as explained in the catechism. Through these 52 meditations, Schönborn's hope is for the reader to not just have a better grasp of the Catholic doctrine and belief, but especially to grow in a greater love of and devotion to the person of Jesus Christ. Faith is a whole; it has only one heart, one center: Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. Christ must therefore also be the center of catechesis, whose object is putting people in communion with Jesus Christ. Only he can lead us to the love of the Father in the Spirit. Cardinal Christoph Schönborn.

Foreword by Cardinal Christoph Schönborn. The theme of this book is that the catechism of the Catholic Church, perhaps the most important work on catechesis since the apostolic age, offers not only a new definitive account for our times of the full teaching of the Catholic faith, but also that it is a superbly crafted work from which to learn and to teach the faith. This book reveals the pedagogy embedded in the catechism, showing every teacher, parent, catechist, or student how to discover the key principles that enable one to learn from and teach from the catechism. The compendium of the catechism of the Catholic Church speaks of the wisdom of the presentation of the catechism and of the depth of its spirituality. These points have rarely been explained in any sustained way and have never before been systematically treated. The unique point about this book is that it focuses on these points rather than a simple explanation of the content of the catechism. This book offers a pedagogical approach to the catechism for handing on the faith of the Catholic Church in any setting, whether home, school, and parish. It offers perennially valid teaching points drawn from a perennial text and an explanation of the pedagogy of God, which underpins all authentic teaching methods in the Church. In this way, the book offers a twelve step path to recovery out of unhealthy catechetical addictions and obsessions which have bedeviled the catechetical world it is unique in its origin emerging from a catechetical friendship encouraged by cardinal schönborn between three institutions working in an authentic catholic catechetical tradition the three authors display a deep trust and love for the words of the catechism of the catholic church words that hold a rich heritage and can be pondered lovingly and searchingly since they are for our good for everyone s good this volume is intended to meet a widely felt need for an up to date and concise source book on the principal teachings of the catholic church since the close of the second vatican council there has been such an accumulation of ecclesiastical constitutions and decrees and so many changes they introduced in catholic practice that few people have been able to keep up with all that has happened a parallel purpose of this volume is to offer those who use it a handy guidebook of the catholic tradition whether formally documented in ecclesiastical sources or implicitly accepted by the faithful under the aegis of the church s hierarchial leaders the method followed in presenting the church s doctrine is a combination of history and logic doctrines are placed into a historical framework by tracing their origins to the old and new testaments and placing their development within the context of persons places and times the doctrine thus becomes more intelligible because it is viewed in the setting of its vital growth over the centuries the intended reading audience of this catholic catechism are all those priests religious and laity and above all parents and teachers who are looking for a concise statement of the faith they profess the conduct they practice and the worship they give to the lord from the catholic catechism by john a hardon s j
