traditions and cultures represent a set of persisting or prevailing beliefs social practices oral linguistic and values that define an individual s way of life in other words in memoir writing the emphasis is often to propagate a unilateral need or embrace of self identity however the dominant narrative and method of analysis in this study holds the notion and privileges that tradition and cultures imbibed by memoirists are sometimes subverted refashioned or reworked due to the strand of experiences or realities they encounter in different spaces as their narration develops thus memoirists embrace indifference and open mindedness which is also greatly explored in the context of autobiography

2023 choice outstanding academic title memories of africa home and abroad in the united states suggests a new lens for viewing african diaspora studies the experiences of african memoirists who live in the united states the book shows how african diaspora memoirs beautifully and grippingly depict the experiences of african migrants over time through political social and cultural spheres in reading african diaspora memoirs from the transatlantic slave trade period to the present a reader can understand the complexity of the african migrant legacy and evolution author toyin falola argues that memoirs are significant not only in their interpretation of events conveyed by the memoirists but also in demonstrating how interpersonal and human the stories told can be memoirs are powerful because they are emotionally captivating and because important themes and events circulate around a particular person in this case the memoirist undoubtedly a memoir is significant because it can teach anyone about a part of the human experience even if the facts are not described without bias through this sort of narrative the reader cannot help but enter into the memoirist s mind and therefore feel more empathy for them in doing so the reader can feel what the memoirist feels and see what the memoirist sees as clearly as is humanly possible in this way the historical events and life lessons become tangible and poignantly real to the reader in search of the afropolitan explores human encounters and moments that speak to the challenges of being a 21st century african of the world against the background of an engaging evaluation of the heated debate on afropolitanism and what constitutes an afropolitan the authors turn to literature and its intrinsic capacity for unfolding the human figure of the african as inherently complex and multidimensional through a detailed probing of the afropolitan in literary narratives the book enters into conversations about self understanding and the signification of africa in the contexts of global mobility the book conceives of afropolitanism as a flexible space of inquiry that curbs the inclination to set the definition of the ism in stone instead it attempts to distil through close up character analyses a multifarious sense of what it means to be afropolitan in the contemporary moment in that sense the encounters we come across in the literary narratives produce unexpected ontological negotiations on what it means to be african in the world today as a special feature of in search of the afropolitan the authors conversations with prominent writers thinkers and critics provide a lively context for the ongoing debate on afropolitanism and the afropolitan
