at a time when each society had its own medium of propagation of its researches in the form of transactions proceedings journals etc a need was strongly felt for bringing out a journal devoted exclusively to the study and advancement of indian culture in all its aspects this encouraged jas burgess to launch the indian antiquary in 1872 the scope was in his own words as wide as possible incorporating manners and customs arts mythology feasts festivals and rites antiquities and the history of india another laudable aim was to present the readers abstracts of the most recent researches of scholars in india and the west indian antiquary also dealt with local legends folklore proverbs etc in short indian antiquary was entirely devoted to the study of man the indian in all spheres introduction to facsimile volumes published 1985

this volume brings together sixteen articles on the religions literatures and histories of south and central asia in tribute to patrick olivelle one of north america s leading sanskritists and historians of early india over the last four decades the focus of his scholarship has been on the ascetic and legal traditions of india but his work as both a researcher and a teacher extends beyond early indian religion and literature religion and identity and south asia and beyond is a testament to that influence the contributions in this volume many by former students of olivelle are committed to linguistic and historical rigor combined with sensitivity to how the study of asia has been changing over the last several decades this volume examines the relationship between language and power across cultural boundaries it evaluates the vital role of translation in redefining culture and ethnic identity during the first phase of colonialism mid 18th to late 19th century the english speaking missionaries and east india company functionaries in south india were impelled to master tamil the local language in order to transact their business tamil also comprised ancient classical literary works especially ethical and moral literature which were found especially suited to the preferences of christian missionaries this interface between english and tamil acted as a conduit for cultural transmission among different groups the essays in this volume explore the symbiotic relation between english and tamil during the late colonial and postcolonial as also the modernist and the postmodernist periods the book showcases the modernity of contemporary tamil culture as reflected in its literary and artistic productions poetry fiction short fiction and drama and outlines the aesthetics philosophy and methodology of these translations this volume and its companion which looks at the period between 1750 to 1900 ce cover the late colonial and postcolonial era and will be of interest to students scholars and researchers of translation studies literature linguistics sociology and social anthropology south asian studies colonial and postcolonial studies literary and critical theory as well as culture studies this collection which gathers fifteen stories by contemporary indian women representing the varied languages and regions of their subcontinent is now available to an american audience for the first time william alexander clouston 1843 1896 was a famous british folklorist he contributed to valuable studies combining eastern traditional literature with norse and western folklore his works include the book of noodles stories of simpletons or fools and their follies 1888 flowers from a persian garden and other papers 1890 and book of wise sayings 1893 like popular tales in general the original sources of stories of simpletons are for the most part not traceable the old greek jests of this class had doubtless been floating about among different peoples long before they were reduced to writing the only tales and apologues of noodles or stupid folk to which an approximate date can be assigned are those found in the early buddhist books especially in the j takas or birth stories which are said to have been related to his disciples by gautama the illustrious founder of buddhism as incidents which occurred to himself and others in former births and were afterwards put into a literary form by his followers this unusual book examines definitions of the fable apologue parable moral tale etc it then proposes the use of the term exemplum used by medieval scribes to define all types of wisdom narratives it makes a cross cultural structural analysis of the exemplum and identifies its tripartite structure composed of the promythium the nucleus and the epimythium the book ends with an analysis of the reasons why grown men spent so much time writing and collecting these tales it demonstrates that fables and related genres were not really meant for little children to learn moral lessons they were used to teach complex religious and political ideologies to safely ridicule tyrants and despots to release tensions and to give good or bad advice
