excerpt from art in america a critical and historical sketch the aim of this book has been to give a historical outline of the growth of the arts in america but while this has been the dominating idea in the mind of the writer criticism has necessarily entered more or less into the preparation of the work since only by weighing the differences or the comparative merits of those artists who seemed best to illustrate the various phases of american art has it been possible to trace its progress from one step to another it is from no lack of appreciation of their talents that the author has apparently neglected mention of the american artists resident in foreign capitals like bridgman duveneck wight neal bacon benson ernest parton millet whistler dana blushfield miss gardner miss conant and many others who have done credit to american aesthetic culture but it was necessary to draw the line somewhere and to discuss what our artists are painting abroad would have at once enlarged the scope of the work beyond the limits of the plan adopted an exception has been made in the case of our sculptors because they have so uniformly lived and wrought in europe and so large a proportion of them are still resident there that were we to confine this branch of the subject only to the sculptors now actually in america there would be little left to say about their department of our arts the author takes this occasion cordially to thank the artists and amateurs who have kindly permitted copies of their paintings and drawings to be engraved for this volume about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
