with a title adapted from deuteronomy 6:24 for our good always is a collection of 25 essays from evangelical scholars on the message of deuteronomy and its influence on christian scripture no other book colors the tapestry of biblical thought quite like deuteronomy it synthesized the theology of the pentateuch provided israel with a constitution for guiding their covenant relationship with yahweh in the promised land and served as a primary lens through which later biblical authors interpreted israel's covenant history recent advances in scholarship on deuteronomy and developments in biblical interpretation are raising fresh questions and opening new paths for exploration this collection of studies wrestles with deuteronomy from historical literary theological and canonical perspectives and offers new questions presents original discoveries and makes innovative proposals the volume is offered in honor of daniel i block on the occasion of his 70th birthday few old testament scholars have worked so ably carefully and intentionally to help the church and the academy grasp the message of deuteronomy block's own studies always exhibit an admirable balance of exegetical rigor literary and theological awareness and pastoral care and for well over a decade he has like the priest scribe ezra devoted himself to the study practice and teaching of the deuteronomic torah ezra 7:10 helping and urging others to hear the life giving gospel of moses in deuteronomy the international group of specialists that contributed to this volume consists of daniel block's colleagues friends and former students it is their hope that these studies will in various ways supplement daniel block's work serving the church and the academy and honoring the god of israel

martin luther and other reformers were instruments in god's hand to recover the gospel in the holy scriptures nevertheless it is an irony that along with the gospel there was still law in the sense of law as rule of life in the teaching of the reformers on the issue of the law even luther was not as consistent as was paul the apostle in the grace of christ the saving righteousness of god which justifies the ungodly in christ and frees us from trusting in our righteousness is given its central place as it is in the gospel of god rom 1:1ff at the same time the new creation in christ is also given its rightful due following the apostles teaching in terms of what paul means by both justification and new creation in christ the grace of christ like no other book shows that both of these realities exclude any idea of the law of moses as the rule of life for those in christ paul is not an antinomian the new creation in christ is our rule gal 6 15 16 roessing does not base his position on only this one text but rather shows how paul consistently teaches this truth in many places and ways even though the flesh rejects it and roessing is not alone in this view he is close to that of gerhard o forde and even closer to that of wolfgang pannenberg but this issue of the believers rule is just one of the aspects of grace covered in the grace of christ for those who want to learn something of the depth of the things freely given us by god the grace of christ the law in light of the gospel sets forth those things so that the spiritually hungry will want to behold the grace of god in christ as he is set forth in these pages and to return again for more like the book of romans in the new testament the book of deuteronomy provides the most systematic and sustained presentation of theology in the old testament and like the gospel of john it represents mature theological reflection on god s great acts of salvation in this case associated with the exodus of israel from egypt unfortunately for many christians deuteronomy is a dead book either because its contents are unknown or because its message is misunderstood the essays in this collection arise from a larger project driven by a passion to recover for christians the life giving message of the old testament in general and the gospel according to moses in particular the meditations cover a wide range of topics from explorations into the meaning of specific texts to considerations of the ethical and homiletical relevance of the book for christians today
