this collection of essays gives an overview on current developments in the field of education in the successor states of ex yugoslavia and the republic of moldova from the mid 1990s to today the impact of nation and state building processes on the politics of history and on schooling are analysed against the background of the complex social and political transformations that have been taking place in the region changes that are usually subsumed under the problematic and rather unspecific notion of transition the book engages in such issues like what is the role of international actors and which impact have interventions in education what are the preconditions for lasting and sustainable reforms in education what goals are inscribed in history textbook narratives the book addresses these questions from an interdisciplinary perspective and offers insights into the complicated and ambiguous developments in the field of education in southeast europe during the last decade kosovo the politics of identity and space explores the albanian serbian confrontation after slobodan milosevic s rise to power and the policy of repression in kosovo through the lens of the kosovo education system the argument is woven around the story of imposed ethnic segregation in kosovo s education and its impact on the emergence of exclusive notions of nation and homeland among the serbian and albanian youth in the 1990s the book also critically explores the wider context of the albanian non violent resistance including the emergence of the parallel state and its weaknesses kosovo the politics of identity and space not only provides an insight into events that led to the bloodshed in kosovo in the late 1990s but also shows that the legacy of segregation is one of the major challenges the international community faces in its efforts to establish an integrated multi ethnic society in the territory
