- 1 Scarcity This is arguably the most fundamental concept in economics It simply means that we have limited resources to satisfy our unlimited wants and needs Think of it this way theres only so much land labor and capital available But people want houses cars vacations and countless other things This fundamental conflict between limited resources and unlimited wants is the driving force behind all economic decisions Example Imagine you only have 50 to spend You want to buy a new video game 40 a delicious pizza 15 and a coffee 5 You cant buy everything because of scarcity you must make a choice
- 2 Opportunity Cost This is the value of the next best alternative forgone when making a decision Its not just about what you lose but what you could have gained It emphasizes the tradeoffs inherent in every choice Example Lets say you decide to spend your evening studying economics The opportunity cost isnt just the time spent studying its also the enjoyment you could have had watching a 2 movie spending time with friends or pursuing a hobby
- 3 Tradeoffs Closely related to opportunity cost tradeoffs represent the choices we make when faced with scarcity Every decision involves giving something up to gain something else Example A government might face a tradeoff between spending on education and spending on national defense More funding for education means less for defense and vice versa
- 4 Incentives These are factors that motivate individuals businesses or governments to act in a particular way They can be positive rewards or negative penalties Example A tax break positive incentive encourages businesses to invest A fine for speeding negative incentive discourages reckless driving
- 5 Market This is any place or mechanism that facilitates the exchange of goods and services It can be a physical location like a farmers market or a virtual space like Amazon Example The stock market is a market where shares of companies are traded eBay is a market for buying and selling used goods
- 6 Supply The quantity of a good or service that producers are willing and able to offer at a given price Supply generally increases as the price increases Example If the price of apples rises farmers will be more inclined to produce and sell more apples
- 7 Demand The quantity of a good or service that consumers are willing and able to purchase at a given price Demand generally decreases as the price increases Example If the price of movie tickets increases fewer people will be willing to go to the movies
