David A. deSilva sets a new standard for New Testament introductions emphasizing the social and rhetorical contexts of the texts and their authors highlighting a variety of interpretive approaches to the new testament and considering implications of the new testament for ministry formation this workbook accompanies the new testament in its world by n t wright and michael f bird following the textbook s structure it offers assessment questions exercises and activities designed to support the students learning experience reinforcing the teaching in the textbook this workbook will not only help to enhance their understanding of the new testament books as historical literary and social phenomena located in the world of early christianity but also guide them to think like a first century believer while reading the text responsibly for today this non technical introduction to the new testament describes how the various christian writings were composed over a period of about a century it explains who the authors were when they wrote who they wrote for and why some early christian writings were canonized as holy scripture and others were not book jacket this book presents a selection of william horbury s recent essays those collected in part i seek to trace the profile of herodian jewish piety its greek and roman setting and its reflection in christianity monotheism mysticism perceptions of mooses and the temple are all considered in this way and a jewish context for the term gospel and the institution of the lord s supper is suggested part ii treats modern new testament study with special attention to its links with study of the classical and jewish traditions and a survey on british study in its international setting a bible student reference a new testament prophecy of a falling away from truth into apostasy and lawlessness in the final generation before jesus christ returns in glory is being fulfilled now and is shortly to end yet christianity has overwhelmingly moved so far from its first century roots that it could not even recognise this or that christ s return is therefore now almost upon us how and why this is the case is here explained thoroughly and logically with many examples directly from the word of god in god s saving plan for the world everyone must in time make a free will choice to become part of the israel of god in order to access eternal life in the kingdom of god the route to take is the strait and narrow way mat 7 13 14 that very few have so far found and it involves the biblical new and old covenants which both apply to this israel embark on this voyage only if you are willing to be challenged about some basic christian preconceptions be a serious open minded bible student and trust what the bible teaches but remember that time is short what the bible has taught me i see as both vital and urgent for our eternal salvation yet i know of no church or individual theologian who teaches what this book deals with in any substantive way be prepared for major challenges to your understanding just as god has challenged me in the epistles paul refers to two israels whom he calls israel after the flesh i cor 10 18 and the israel of god gal 6 16 i focus mainly on the latter but i also explain an unexpected but critically important connection between them dependent on the teaching nearly all christian denominations either teach nothing at all on it or almost the opposite of what scripture repeatedly showed me looking back i find this absolutely staggering very few christians understand that the new covenant also only applies to israel as i will clearly show i no longer believe that the nt new testament can be fully understood without this extra israel dimension had i felt i could deliver this in a more light hearted way i would have done so but its implications are too awesome and fundamental to our eternal life prospects for that a guide to understanding teaching and preaching the word of god includes reproducible exegesis work sheets for contextual cultural structural verbal theological and homiletical analyses although the cry for justice in human society is an important theme in the bible in many church and academic circles action for and discourse about social justice is carried on without a thorough exploration of this theme in scripture this volume brings together chapters by experts in the various sections of the old and new testaments to give a full spectrum of what the bible has to say about social justice and to point to ways forward for christians seeking to think and act in harmony with god in pursuing social justice in the world today from the bestselling author of the lamb s supper and signs of life comes an illuminating work that unlocks the many mysteries of the catholic sacrament of the eucharist long before the new testament was a document it was a sacrament jesus called the eucharist by the name christians subsequently gave to the latter books of the holy bible it was the new covenant the new testament in his blood christians later extended the phrase to cover the books produced by the apostles and their companions but they did so because these were the books that could be read at mass this simple and demonstrable historical fact has enormous implications for the way we read the bible in consuming the word the new testament and the eucharist in the early church dr scott hahn undertakes an examination of some of christianity s most basic terms to discover what they meant to the sacred authors the apostolic preachers and their first hearers moreover at a time when the church is embarking on a new evangelization he draws lessons for christians today to help solidify their understanding of the why it is catholics do what catholics do anyone acquainted with the rich body of writing that flows so inspiringly from the hand and heart of dr hahn knows that he brings profound personal insight to his demonstrated theological expertise writes cardinal donald wuerl in the foreword to the book consuming the word continues in that illustrious tradition it brings us a powerful and welcome guide as we take our place in the great and challenging work in sharing the good news
