this book analyses the efforts throughout east asia to deploy education for purposes of political socialization and in particular in order to shape notions of identity the chapters also examine the trend of common textbook initiatives which have recently emerged in east asia with the aim of helping to defuse tensions arguably fuelled by existing practices of mutual misrepresentation these are analysed in relation to the east asian political context and compared with previous and ongoing endeavours in other parts of the world particularly europe which have been keenly observed by east asian practitioners written by a group of international education experts chapters discuss the enduring focus on the role of curricula in inculcating homogenous visions of the national self and indeed homogenized visions of significant others including contributions from scholars and curriculum developers involved personally in the writing of national and multi national history textbooks this book will be of interest to students and scholars of asian education asian history and comparative education studies gotelind müller is professor of chinese studies university of heidelberg germany for decades historians and societal forces have campaigned for rapprochement reconciliation and dialogue between east asian nations this book is a result of these efforts debates regarding the interpretation of the modern history of east asia continue to affect bilateral relations between the states of the region history education has become a particularly controversial issue in this context this book s main message is that a common understanding regarding the history of east asia is possible even though some differences remain it is not only a major contribution to reconciliation in the region but as the first textbook on the history of east asia written collaboratively by scholars from three east asian countries it is also highly recommended for use in an anglophone teaching environment the authors are a group of historians teachers and concerned citizens from china japan and south korea full of field tested implementation tools this comprehensive handbook shows how schools and districts can use the balanced curriculum process to put their schools on the track to success over the past fifteen years northeast asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy still the region cannot escape from the burden of history this book examines the formation of historical memory in four northeast asian societies china japan south korea and taiwan and the united states focusing on the period from the beginning of the sino japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the pacific war with the san francisco peace treaty of 1951 the contributors analyse the recent efforts of korean japanese and chinese scholars to write a common history of northeast asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements in doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in northeast asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories the book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of asian history asian education and international relations in east asia
