in his final q tagebuch report to hedwig muller dated 19 december 1935 tucholsky declared dass ich mein leben zerhauen habe weiss ich dass ich nicht allein daran schuld bin weiss ich aber auch mein gott ware ich in frankreich geboren combining biographical investigation with an analysis of tucholsky s published journalism this study sets out to assess the significance of the contact with france and french culture in tucholsky s life and work it shows the extent to which he was influenced by the french cultural and intellectual tradition and by his first hand experience of france it provides new insights into tucholsky s life in france notably his involvement with french freemasonry and the importance of his contacts in french literary pacifist and political circles this study also considers the role tucholsky played or attempted to play in improving franco german relations and reveals the extent of his efforts to promote rapprochement not only in germany but also in france through behind the scenes contact with politicians and diplomats through lectures and through his published journalism
