this book investigates the dan danite tradition in the hebrew bible to determine not only what the bible tells us about dan but also how far traditions about the territory city ancestor and tribe may have influenced each other bartusch argues that the political and theological interests reflected in the relatively late work of the deuteronomistic historian have cast a shadow over some earlier traditions and that by combining social science models and newer literary criticism with the more traditional historical critical methodologies the original meaning of the traditions of dan may be recovered and clarified the conclusion of such a study is that the hebrew bible as a whole does not entirely support the negative portrayal of dan in its later traditions young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout literature for young adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read it explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers it also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs in addition to traditional genre chapters literature for young adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film it recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with the book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books it will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading this book highlights cutting edge research relevant to the building of a computational model of reading comprehension as in the processing and understanding of a natural language text or story the book takes an interdisciplinary approach to the study of reading with contributions from computer science psychology and philosophy contributors cover the theoretical and psychological foundations of the research in discussions of what it means to understand a text how one builds a computational model and related issues in knowledge representation and reasoning the book also addresses some of the broader issues that a natural language system must deal with such as reading in context linguistic novelty and information extraction
