a unique intersection between periodical and literary scholarship and class and gender history this book showcases a brand new approach to surveying a popular domestic magazine reading woman s weekly alongside titles including good housekeeping my weekly peg s paper and woman s own and works by authors including dot allan e m delafield george orwell and j b priestley it positions the publication within both the contemporary magazine market and the field of literature more broadly redrawing the parameters of that field as it approaches the domestic magazine as a literary genre in its own right between 1918 and 1958 woman s weekly targeted a lower middle class readership broadly housewives and unmarried clerical workers on low incomes who viewed or aspired to view themselves as middle class examining the magazine s distinctively lower middle class treatment of issues including the first world war s impact on gender the status of housewives and working women women s contribution to the second world war effort and britain s post war economic and social recovery this book supplies fresh and challenging insights into lower middle class culture during a period in which britain s lower middle classes were gaining prominence and middle class lifestyles were undergoing rapid and radical change a rich and fascinating account of the lives of victorian governesses exploring nineteenth century attitudes to women family and class if a nineteenth century lady had neither a husband to support her nor money of her own almost her only recourse was to live in someone else s household and educate their children in particular their daughters marooned within the confines of other people s lives neither servants nor family members governesses occupied an uncomfortable social limbo and being poor and insignificant their papers were mostly lost but a few journals and letters have come down to us giving a vivid record of what it was to be a lone professional woman at a time when such a creature officially did not exist contains the annual reports of various ohio state governmental offices including the attorney general governor secretary of state etc emotional intelligence expert and motivational speaker vermeulen eq emotional intelligence for everyone wont help revitalize feminism with this stereotyping polemic against what she sees as womens terminal self sacrifice touching on issues like body image mother daughter relationships and societal constraints vermeulen offers not a self help seminar for unhappy women but a one sided lecture telling them why theyre depressed men have suppressed them and how to gain power over their lives find their life work and their inner bitch vermeulen uses feminist fairy tales to make her point in jane and the brainstalk for instance jack pumps iron while sister jane draws water harvests the fields and caters to her lazy conniving brother the message men are exploitative violent pigs and women should rightfully take power vermeulen seems to be living in her own fairy tale world ruled by good women and evil men while tearing apart female stereotypes she typecasts men although the author touches on
