religious figures of remembrance served to consolidate first dynastic rule and later nation state legitimacy and community this book explains the interweaving of eastern roman medieval serbian and bulgarian contexts as well as ottoman and western european national discourses or reinvented traditions we can distinguish a secularization and nationalization of the religious contexts in the 19th century within historicism followed by a nationalization of god and a sacralization of the nation until the end of wwii contrary to the national views the origins of the modern content of these discourses lie only to a very limited extent in the middle ages or in the early modern period as this study shows please note this is volume 2 of a 2 volume set click here to see volume 1

Dr Vlasto reviews the early history of the various Slav peoples from about AD 500 onwards and traces their gradual emergence as Christian states within the framework of either West or East European culture. Special attention is paid to the political and cultural rivalry between East and West for the allegiance of certain Slav peoples and to the degree of cultural exchange within the slav world associated in particular with the use of the slav liturgical language his examination of all the slav peoples and extensive use of original source material in many different languages enables dr vlasto to give a particularly comprehensive study of the subject
