initiated a technique of bonding with the baby in the womb the whole process has been explained in this book the first part deals with emotional aspects 1 the concept and technique of talking to the baby in the womb 2 hope courage and confidence how talking to the baby in the womb helps the expectant mother to face delivery confidently to come out successfully with a healthy baby even in the case of those who had miscarriages in the past 3 the role of husband in supporting wife during pregnancy the second part deals with mental aspects 4 intelligence 5 behavioral aspects of the baby 6 influence of music on the baby during pregnancy the third part deals with 7 physical aspects including physical dynamism and sporting aspects of the baby 8 vomiting in pregnancy 9 meditation and yoga the fourth part deals with sensory aspects 10 taste healthy eating habit every mother irrespective of caste colour creed religion educated uneducated rich poor with power without power has got a capacity to imagine and visualize the qualities of the child she is going to have this has been a power given by god nature to every woman to produce a child of highest caliber which she desires whole of the book explains of how to go about that in the early islamic world arabic erotic compendia and sex manuals were a popular literary genre although primarily written by male authors the erotic publications from this era often emphasised the sexual needs of women and the importance of female romantic fulfilment pernilla myrne here explores this phenomenon examining a range of arabic literature to shed fresh light onto the complexities of female sexuality under the abbasids and the buyids based on an impressive array of neglected medical religious legal literary and entertainment sources myrne elucidates the tension between depictions of women s strong sexual agency and their subordinated social role in various contexts in the process she uncovers a great diversity of approaches from the 9th to the 11th century including the sexual handbook the encyclopedia of pleasure jawami al ladhdha which portrayed the diversity of female desires asserting the importance of mutual satisfaction through lively poems and stories this is the first in depth comprehensive analysis of female sexuality in the early islamic world and is essential reading for all scholars of middle eastern history and arabic literature a pioneering birth psychologist combines a lifetime s worth of research with new findings to provide a fascinating look inside the minds of unborn children in the past the invisible physical processes of fetal development were mysterious and largely unexplainable but thanks to breakthroughs in embryology interuterine photography ultrasound and other sensitive instruments of measurement we can now make systematic observations inside the womb and can see that fetuses are fully sentient aware beings in this new climate of appreciation for the surprising dimensions of fetal behavior sensitivity and intelligence windows to the womb brings a host of new information to light about the transformative journey each one of us undergoes in the womb birth psychologist dr david chamberlain describes the amazing construction of our physical bodies the ultimate architecture and draws parallels with the expansion of our minds as our brains and senses develop and grow he also details new discoveries in embryonic and fetal research that support his own findings on the impact of the mother s emotional and physical state during pregnancy the importance of bonding at the earliest stages and the steps that expectant parents can take to ensure the most nurturing start in life for their children this dissertation offers a detailed analysis of birth metaphors in job 1 3 10 38 and 39 by using blending theory supplemented by conceptual metaphor theory it explores both metaphors that describe birth and those that use birth as a metaphor for other concepts such as creation and death it also concerns related concepts such as fetal formation womb and stillbirth the metaphors are studied in their cultural and literary contexts as well as how they are grounded in embodied experiences of birth blending theory explains various cognitive processes and can analyze both conventional metaphors and new complex ones it explains the debated expression of death as a return to the womb in job 1 21 based on a cognitive process where something is understood through negated features of its antonym a detailed mapping of the metaphors in job 3 reveals contrary to the dominant interpretation that job does not wish to curse all of creation but only the day he was born furthermore it shows that the womb is blended with the grave and sheol but without projecting any positive associations of the womb to the realm of death this study examines how conventional metaphors are replaced by new ones and demonstrates how the birth metaphors in job 38 39 challenge the traditional combat motif where god is seen as combating the sea and wild chaotic forces the portrayal of god as a midwife includes an act of breaking the limit to the sea which contradicts the combat motif rather than dominating creation god is depicted as a midwife and a parent who is close to it providing all wild creatures with food and freedom overall the study underscores the central position of birth metaphors in these key chapters of job a close analysis of the metaphors contributes to the interpretation of the biblical text from the understanding of specific hebrew words to how innovative metaphors challenge both the beliefs of their time and current interpretations
