now a netflix film starring samuel l jackson winner of the new york drama critics circle award for best play this modern american classic is about family and the legacy of slavery in america august wilson has already given the american theater such spell binding plays about the black experience in 20th century america as ma rainey s black bottom joe turner s come and gone and the pulitzer prize winning fences in his second pulitzer prize winner the piano lesson wilson has fashioned perhaps his most haunting and dramatic work at the heart of the play stands the ornately carved upright piano which as the charles family s prized hard won possession has been gathering dust in the parlor of berniece charles s pittsburgh home when boy willie berniece s exuberant brother bursts into her life with his dream of buying the same mississippi land that his family had worked as slaves he plans to sell their antique piano for the hard cash he needs to stake his future but berniece refuses to sell clinging to the piano as a reminder of the history that is their family legacy this dilemma is the real piano lesson reminding us that blacks are often deprived both of the symbols of their past and of opportunity in the present it is 1936 and boy willie arrives in pittsburgh from the south in a battered truck loaded with watermelons to sell he has an opportunity to buy some land down home but he has to come up with the money right quick he wants to sell an old piano that has been in his family for generations but he shares ownership with his sister and it sits in her living room she has already rejected several offers because the antique piano is covered with incredible carvings detailing the family s rise from slavery boy willie tries to persuade his stubborn sister that the past is past but she is more formidable than he anticipated in this critical study mary l bogumil argues that wilson gives voice to disfranchised and marginalized african americans who have been promised a place and a stake in the american dream but find access to the rights and freedoms promised to all americans difficult the author maintains that wilson not only portrays african americans and the predicaments of american life but also sheds light on the atavistic connection african americans have to their african ancestors the african american dramatist august wilson who was born in a pittsburgh slum in 1945 saw the first professional productions of his plays in 1981 and 1982 in little theaters in st paul minnesota and pittsburgh he had also begun sending his plays to the eugene o neill playwrights conference which sponsors workshops to develop the talents of young american playwrights the connecticut based conference eventually accepted a work in progress ma rainey s black bottom staged in 1984 and from that moment wilson s career took off like to use the title of his 1992 play two trains running with ma rainey wilson began a ten play cycle dramatizing different decades in the history of african americans in the twentieth century the other works in the still unfinished cycle include fences staged in 1985 joe turner s come and gone staged in 1986 the piano lesson staged in 1990 two trains running staged in 1992 and seven guitars staged in 1996 seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject american studies literature grade 1 7 university of duisburg essen department of anglophone studies language english abstract the piano lesson tells the story about an african american family during the 1930s that is haunted by the past and shows the bitter fate of the unchangeability of the enslavement of their ancestors wilson wrote the piano lesson as a way of investigation on how african americans should confront the painful past of slavery and discrimination this paper shall investigate the different ways of approaching history for descendants of formerly enslaved families this research addresses multiple issues how does one deal with the burdens of the past how can one use the past to make the best for the future and reconstruct cultural identity in order to answer this question i am going to interpret the different symbolic devices in the play and put them in context with the historical background i will take a closer look at how the characters deal with the past how they try to break away from the old chains of their ancestors and how they live their lives with the burdens of history i will analyze and interpret the behavior of the characters in more detail i will further argue that august wilson uses his characters and the play itself to show that moving forward and accepting the past is necessary in order to reconstruct cultural identity in the dramatic vision of august wilson sandra shannon follows the playwright s path through each decade from the outset she considers how he uses poetry the blues romare bearden s art and other cultural artifacts to lead him to imagined sites of pain and resignation healing and renewal in the collective memory of black america it is in these places of defeat and victory shannon demonstrates that wilson creates drama as he excavates examines and reclaims the past although wilson diverts attention away from factual details and focuses on the human costs of family dislocation chronic unemployment or cultural alienation shannon illustrates how fully the plays are grounded in credible historical contexts from slavery and emancipation to the aftermath of world war ii the 1960s and the vietnam war moreover she identifies and analyzes the themes that recur in some plays and branch off in new directions in others including the dislocations that attended black migration to the north and communication gaps between black men and women as she examines each of the plays in wilson s dramatic history of the african american experience shannon conveys the broad range of his dramatic vision book jacket title summary field provided by blackwell north america inc all rights reserved a literary guide examining the life of august wilson and the themes settings and characters of his ten twentieth century cycle plays academic paper from the year 2006 in the subject american studies literature grade a southern illinois university carbondale department of english southern illinois university carbondale course august wilson play analysis language english abstract august wilson s the piano lesson 1987 which plays in pittsburgh in the kitchen and parlor of a railroad cook s house in 1936 is the third drama of his cycle of an investigation of black americans lives in the u s after slavery boy willie travels with a friend to his uncle s a railroad cook s house where his sister berniece lives in order to sell their mutual heirloom a piano bearing carved life scenes and faces of their ancestors to buy the dead slave owner s land for farming two of their ancestors once were sold as slaves for the price of this piano and their father ultimately had been burned in a railroad car of the yellow dog for stealing the piano he conceived as family possession the almost deadly argument between brother and sister ends in not selling the piano after boy willie had to fight the ghost of the murdered slave owner and berniece saved his life by playing an exorcism song on the piano she had not dared to touch for years wilson s characters make gothic experiences at the famous railroad crossing at moorhead ms where allegedly the ghosts of the yellow dog talk back to the seeker says wining boy the musician the train passed and i started to go back up there and stand some more but something told me not to do it i walked away from there feeling like a king went on and had a stroke of luck that run on for three years 35 what do ancient african sacrificial rites have to do with american railroad lore this review paper will focus on the importance of railroad music in the piano lesson and the mystical veil covering the railroad crossing where the southern crosses the yellow dog
