drama irony betrayal miracles a holy war with the whole world at stake and it's all packed into the shortest of the four gospels written in an engaging lively oral style loosing the lion tells us how despite being misunderstood and neglected throughout most of history the gospel of mark has recently been experiencing a scholarly revival theologians are beginning to see how it is actually an intense wild impossible story told at a breakneck pace with twists and turns that shock and surprise those with eyes to see and ears to hear readers will be captivated by the gospel's literary brilliance which brings us to the threshold of an encounter with the living jesus who reveals his mysteries and ultimately himself to those who approach him and dwell in his presence and when we do encounter him the proper response is repentance joining god's army to be liberated and once liberated advancing the liberation of the whole cosmos which ultimately is the content of the gospel jesus calls us to believe in liberation is coming join the resistance this volume emphasizes the lutheran tradition for use in preaching the bible its archimedean theological insights and its notion of preachings place within the larger liturgical and societal setting working from across the whole array of seminary disciplines the faculty of lutheran theological southern seminary forges this practical resource around a single vision the church of christ lives from the power of the word of god both the law and the gospel preaching this word is a means of grace by which god creates and shapes a redeemed community the goal of preaching is to let the powerful message of the bible penetrate the lives of your congregation a well crafted sermon can help to bridge the gap between biblical context and contemporary application in excellent preaching craig bartholomew explains why we need to be acquainted with both the context of scripture and the context in which we preach good contextualization is hard work but bartholomew shows that it can be done practical accessible and rooted in years of preaching experience this short book helps preachers connect the message of the text to everyday life behold the christ proclaiming the gospel of matthew by leroy a huizenga reveals the significance of st matthew s jesus he is emmanuel god with us always who saves his people from their sins by dying for them in showing how jesus fulfilled the old testament gave us a way to live and taught us how to follow the narrow way to the kingdom of heaven st matthew modeled the fourfold way of reading scripture according to letter and spirit above all st matthew s gospel presents jesus christ founding the catholic church as a robust rigorous religion with rich rituals chiefly the sacrificial eucharist as sustenance on the narrow way to heaven jesus demands much of his church but the same jesus who commands his church also promises and delivers much above all himself keyed to the lectionary and featuring a section on the relevance of st matthew s gospel for our contemporary age behold the christ will make the gospel and indeed the faith real to today s readers gospel preaching was a priority for jesus he committed it as a sacred duty to his church martin rizley winsomely describes its nature and necessity reprioritizing it as christ intended scholars have long understood that the texts we now know as the gospels were read aloud in the greco roman world but few have actually envisioned what a performance of the gospel of mark would have been like in the first century and how it would have shaped the experience of its audience proclaiming the gospel shows us oral performances in the new testament world were lively affairs in the performance of greco roman theater readers lose their voices from the stress of emotional passages audiences cheer for philosophers as if at a rock concert and in law courts they are paid for their responses storytellers compete for attention with jugglers and some speakers must fend off hostile crowds congregations at churches and synagogues cheer as if at the theater shiner reveals the ways that mark wrote his gospel to compete in this arena and how his audiences would have responded applause for the miracles of jesus then an altogether different response at the cross whitney shiner is assistant professor of christian origins at george mason university fairfax virginia and the author of follow me disciples in markan rhetoric what is the foundation of good preaching how should preachers prepare themselves to faithfully and effectively address the church and just as importantly what ought congregants who come to church to hear a word from god hope for from their preachers these are often asked and often answered questions but robert farrar capon tackles them with a freshness and a frankness that make both the questions and the answers new in part 1 of the book the bedrock of preaching capon discusses how essential it is to have a passion for the passion to believe passionately in the good news of salvation in christ how to overcome the stumbling blocks to genuinely accepting grace and how to relinquish a false sense of control over our salvation this part of the book also has important things to say to those of us who listen to sermons and who look to the pulpit for words of grace and hope that are truly meaningful to our lives today in part 2 the practice of preaching capon concentrates on the mechanics of preaching in anything but a mechanical way he begins by discussing the ingredients of preaching emphasizing the importance of not just reading but really hearing the word in the original greek and hebrew and offers some pointed comments on the common lectionary he then goes on to illustrate how to preach effectively from notes giving specific day by day suggestions for preparation he also shows using the full text of one of his sermons as an example how to preach from a more fully written manuscript and explains how to move from first notes to final notes for a sermon again using some of his own notes as an example in capon's creative hands these instructions are not just a nuts and bolts exercise they are lively challenging lessons in preaching that for all their practical advice never lose touch with the center of preaching and belief the astonishing grace of jesus christ in this engaging treatment of the gospel of mark dawn ottoni wilhelm combines biblical scholarship with a close reading of the gospel text to meet the needs of preachers today swift and purposeful the gospel of mark proclaims god's reign and urges the participation of all god's people in the witness of the good news that god has transformed human reality through jesus christ this insightful commentary helps that message come alive while providing pertinent suggestions about how preachers can proclaim this message to today's churchgoers with the expertise of a veteran biblical scholar and the wisdom of a seasoned pastor christopher wright skillfully guides us on jesus journey from the last supper to the cross through the lens of the old testament wright navigates the gospel accounts of the events of jesus last pivotal days inviting us to meditate on their significance for us in this accessible treatment of the major themes of the gospel of john renowned new testament scholar lamar williamson blends the best of biblical scholarship and a close reading of the fourth gospel to meet the practical needs of weekly preaching a more reflective gospel in which the risen jesus speaks in signs and discourses john does not simply tell stories but allows us to experience the word and to see jesus offering living water to the aridity of the institutional church and bread to the hungry hearts of individual disciples more than mere exposition preaching the gospel of john includes at the end of each passage three to five possibilities for preaching the text creative and pertinent suggestions that can help preachers apply the words of the fourth gospel to the lives of today s churchgoers proclaiming the living word is a major theme of the gospel of john and this clear and insightful commentary captures that message in the preaching moment what is the point of preaching with so many agendas competing for pulpit time these days it can be easy to forget the exact purpose of our christian calling to proclaim god s salvation through jesus who died and is now resurrected preaching evangelistically looks at the different elements of gospel preaching and how they are best used to effectively proclaim jesus they include sermon setting text selection preparation preaching with biblical authority giving an invitation and hiding behind the cross as you preach also here are eyes on text examples of evangelistic sermons from selected preachers cowriter al fasol states the purpose of our book is to provide information on preaching evangelistically with integrity with biblical accuracy with appeal to contemporary listeners and absolutely for the glory of god back cover this commentary for preaching matthew a companion to wjk s successful preaching the gospel of luke preaching the gospel of john and preaching the gospel of mark works through every passage of matthew s gospel with exegetical insight and a keen sensitivity to the demands of preaching stanley p saunders commentary follows the biblical text divided into passages after each passage a number of possibilities are presented for how to preach that text he includes a wealth of creative and pertinent tips to help preachers apply matthew s narrative to the lives of today s churchgoers when it comes to evangelism converting the sinner is god's part communicating the gospel is the preacher's part but how is this done effectively professor of expository preaching ramesh richard offers pastors a simple do it yourself resource for preparing and delivering evangelistic sermons incorporating a seven step process this book guides readers through the foundation framework method and special issues of evangelistic preaching with six appendices that provide relevant information outlines and checklists preparing evangelistic sermons is ideal for students of evangelism preachers and ministry leaders who seek a better way to proclaim christ to others drawing from his experience as longtime pastor of preachtree presbyterian church in atlanta w frank harrington says that if the church is to flourish in this time it must return to its primary purpose the proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind to be successful proclamation must be rooted in faith and faith has to be lived out in the real world of need and evil october 31 2017 was the 500th anniversary of one of the most momentous events in church history the beginning of the protestant reformation the reformers wrote quite clearly that they did not set out to divide the church but to reform and restore the church to its biblical mission of preaching the pure gospel yet their message of sola fide sola gratia sola scriptura and direct access to god was not well received by the vested powers that be and so they were maligned persecuted excommunicated and even martyred while division was not desired truth necessarily divides that's just the way it is in a fallen world whereas christians can disagree on a hundred different things and fine points of doctrine they must never disagree in regards to the gospel for it is the very message of salvation christ died for us while we were yet sinners his blood covers our sins entirely the work and the glory are god's alone and as the history of mankind has clearly shown there is simply no standard that people can keep thus salvation is appropriated as an irrevocable gift of love only on the basis of faith just as one solitary act brought death to all mankind adam eating the forbidden fruit so one single death the death of christ in conjunction with his subsequent resurrection brings atonement salvation and life to all who believe
