this book presents three versions of the godfather death motif in english translations as well as the original spanish a desperate man makes a pact with death in order to alleviate pain or sorrow or poverty death then makes him a doctor and endows him with the ability to predict life or death and thus he feathers his nest and his fortune turns in the end however death demands its pound of flesh and the day of reckoning arrives the three authors of these death and the doctor tales are three of nineteenth century spain s most well known short story writers fernan caballero cecilia bohl de faber 1796 1877 first published juan holgado y la muerte juan holgado and death in 1850 it stands out for its humor relating fernan caballero s hapless paterfamilias attempt to escape his numerous children in order to feast on a rabbit only to have death in the shape of an old woman snatch it from his hands antonio de trueba 1819 89 first published tragaldabas glutton in 1867 the main characteristic of trueba s piece is its satire and scathing portrayal as well as condemnation of the medical profession death s friend is much more ambitious than fernan caballero s and trueba s tales and in length approaches a short novel it is essentially a love story gil gil and elena ill starred lovers are reunited through divine intervention as both elena and death petition god on gil gil s behalf taken together these three death and the doctor tales fill a void in the godfather death motif of western european literature and highlight the universality of spain s folk tradition book jacket title summary field provided by blackwell north america inc all rights reserved the first english translation of michael de carvajal s spanish play complaint of the indians in the court of death originally published in 1557 translated by carlos jáuregui and mark smith soto an annotated bilingual edition with an introduction that discusses the origins and ideological significance of the play provided by publisher the best leave you with a renewed sense of how extraordinary it is that poetry can over the course of one sentence flood your circuit board with loss or anger or love independent from j j abrams to john le carré salman rushdie to jonathan franzen daniel radcliffe to nick cave ian mcewan to stephen fry stanley tucci to colin firth and seamus heaney to christopher hitchins 100 men confess to being moved to tears by poems that haunt them this remarkable collection of poems from the sixteenth century to the present day delivers private insight into the souls of men whose writing acting and thinking are admired around the world displaced memories analyzes the representation of traumatic memories political imprisonment torture survival and exile in the literary works of alicia kozameh alicia partnoy and nora strejilevich survivors of argentina s dirty war 1976 1983 beginning with an examination of the history of argentina s last dictatorship the conditions that led the authors to exile and the contexts in which the texts were published portela provides the theoretical tools for the understanding of narratives of trauma and displacement caused by political violence the author proposes a theory that critiques post structuralist paradigms of trauma which present trauma as an unclaimed experience impossible to apprehend as she argues for an analysis of the symbolic uses of language presenting trauma as a claimed experience that can be brought into representation and therefore create the conditions of possibility for working through this volume presents discourse production in multilingual contexts as a specific type of language contact situation translation may be seen as the prototypical type of multilingual discourse production other types would include parallel text production in different languages e g for websites or the production of versions more loosely connected with the source text when divergent communicative norms and conventions come into contact in any of these types of text production one may find that such conventions transcend established language boundaries potentially leading to the emergence of new genres this volume represents the first collection of papers that focus on the specific properties of language contact through multilingual discourse production it brings together approaches by historical linguists language contact researchers and translation scholars thus presenting the topic in its full variety and providing valuable suggestions for further research in this emerging field of study this collection provides an excellent introduction to three of the most important names in twentieth century spanish philosophy miguel de unamuno 1864 1936 josé ortega y gasset 1883 1955 and josé ferrater mora 1912 1991 the thought provoking work of these great contemporary philosophers offers a rich and penetrating insight into human existence originally written by ferrater mora in the middle of the last century his interpretations of unamuno and ortega are considered classics and the chapter on his own thought reflects his mature thinking about being and death each essay is introduced by noted ferrater mora scholar j m terricabras and contains updated biographical and bibliographic information
