this volume brings together key findings of the long term research project religious individualisation in historical perspective max weber centre for advanced cultural and social studies erfurt university combining a wide range of disciplinary approaches methods and theories the volume assembles over 50 contributions that explore and compare processes of religious individualisation in different religious environments and historical periods in particular in asia the mediterranean and europe from antiquity to the recent past contrary to standard theories of modernisation which tend to regard religious individualisation as a specifically modern or early modern as well as an essentially western or christian phenomenon the chapters reveal processes of religious individualisation in a large variety of non western and pre modern scenarios furthermore the volume challenges prevalent views that regard religions primarily as collective phenomena and provides nuanced perspectives on the appropriation of religious agency the pluralisation of religious options dynamics of de traditionalisation and privatisation the development of elaborated notions of the self the facilitation of religious deviance and on the notion of dividuality this catechism is divided into three parts the first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace in the first part our lord appears in his character of teacher in the second in his character of king and in the third in his character of high priest and since this catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many this catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of our lord s teaching and may be called a guide book for the christian on the road to heaven preface
