metaphorically speaking the nineteenth century english bildungsroman dealing with the principle of identity formation parallels victorian fiction as a whole revealing the completion of its own formation which began in the eighteenth century significantly the most important and popular victorian novels are bildungsromane in which authors construct or rather reconstruct their own life experiences as formative processes this book shows that the bildungsroman has a development history is a specific literary system and consists of a thematic and narrative pattern it details the entrance of this newly established fictional tradition into victorian culture and literature through carlyle s threefold literary reception of the novel of formation and its subsequent flourishing and complexity in this respect a number of novelistic works are scrutinized and each faces the question as to whether its thematic and narrative perspectives fit the pattern and shape of the bildungsroman
