john redmond s constitutional parliamentary irish party went from dominating irish politics to oblivion in just four years from 1914 1918 the goal of limited home rule peacefully achieved appeared to die with it given the speed of the party s collapse its death has been seen as inevitable though such views have been challenged there has been no detailed study of the irish party in the last years of union with britain before the world war and the easter rising transformed irish politics

through a study of five counties in provincial Ireland: Leitrim, Longford, Roscommon, Sligo, and Westmeath. That history has now been written far from being rotten. The Irish party was representative of nationalist opinion and still capable of self-renewal and change. However, the Irish nationalism at this time was also suffused with a fierce Anglophobia and sense of grievance defined by its enemies, which rapidly came to the fore first in the Home Rule crisis and then in the War of Independence. The project of the peaceful attainment of Home Rule simply could not be realised.
