this study examines the origins of the vietnam war itself going back to the nature of french colonial rule in the early 20th century it investigates the original conflict between france as well as the united states and the forces of vietnamese nationalism and communism it argues that it was probably a mistake for the united states to internationalize the war in 1954 and it discusses the american commitment to the war directed as much against china as against north vietnam and the ideological hostility to the first comprehensive military history of the war in vietnam the vietnam war cast a shadow over the american psyche from the moment it began in its time it sparked budget deficits campus protests and an erosion of us influence around the world long after the last helicopter evacuated saigon americans have continued to battle over whether it was ever a winnable war based on thousands of pages of military diplomatic and intelligence documents geoffrey wawro s the vietnam war offers a definitive account of a war of choice that was doomed from its inception in devastating detail wawro narrates campaigns where us troops struggled even to find the enemy in the south vietnamese wilderness let alone kill sufficient numbers to turn the tide in their favor yet the war dragged on prolonged by presidents and military leaders who feared the political consequences of accepting defeat in the end no number of young lives lost or bombs dropped could prevent america s ally the corrupt south vietnamese regime from collapsing the moment us troops retreated broad definitive and illuminating the vietnam war offers an unsettling resonant story of the limitations of american power the new york times bestseller the book of the landmark documentary the vietnam war by ken burns and lynn novick the definitive work on the vietnam war the conflict that came to define a generation told from all sides by those who were there more than forty years after the vietnam war ended its legacy continues to fascinate horrify and inform us as the first war to be fought in front of tv cameras and beamed around the world it has been immortalised on film and on the page and forever changed the way we think about war drawing on hundreds of brand new interviews ken burns and geoffrey c ward have created the definitive work on vietnam it is the first book to show us the war from every perspective from idealistic us marines and the families they left behind to the vietnamese civilians both north and south whose homeland was changed for ever politicians pows and anti war protesters and the photographers and journalists who risked their lives to tell the truth the book sends us into the grit and chaos of combat while also expertly outlining the complex chain of political events that led america to vietnam beautifully written this essential work tells the full story without taking sides and reminds us that there is no single truth in war it is set to redefine our understanding of a brutal conflict to launch provocative new debates and to shed fresh light on the price paid in blood and bone by vietnamese and americans alike
