for sixteen year old jane life is a mystery she despairs of ever mastering she and her friends are the idle pampered children of the privileged class living in luxury on an earth remade by natural disaster until jane s life is changed forever by a chance encounter with a robot minstrel with auburn hair and silver skin whose songs ignite in her a desperate and inexplicable passion jane is certain that silver is more than just a machine built to please and she will give up everything to prove it so she escapes into the city's violent decaying slums to embrace a love bordering on madness or is it something more has Jane glimpsed in Silver something no one else has dared to see not even the robot or his creators a love so perfect it must be destroyed for no human could ever compete

Jane a sixteen year old of the future falls in love with Silver an experimental robot so man like that its manufacturer must recall it

Jane has it all clothes money and a beautiful home high above the city but her safe little world is shattered the minute she meets Silver brilliant witty a gifted musician kind understanding and gorgeous Silver is the perfect man except that he is a robot Jane wants Silver like she's never wanted anything or anyone before but it's different with robots you can't just ask them out you have to buy them Jane's best friend Egyptia already owns him and she is enjoying her new toy very much consumed by love's fever Jane sells everything she has and makes promises she can't keep to possess Silver she leaves her suburban mansion in the clouds for the ancient inner city slums Jane and her Silver Metal Lover rent a dingy apartment together they scrape for a living and sing for their supper but people and robots were not meant to be lovers the powers that be are jealous of machine love will Jane and Silver escape the Robophobe's revenge can their flesh and metal union survive the slings and arrows of an intolerant high tech world cover

Trina Robbins graphic novel adaptation of Tanith Lee's timeless science fiction romance novel The Silver Metal Lover the story centers around a young girl in the far flung future who falls in love with a robot this is the first and only reprint since its initial publication in 1985 publisher despite the great diversity of settings in Tanith Lee's novels from the pre historic origins of Christianity to robot dominated futurescapes certain underlying thoughts and references appear consistently while adhering formally to many of the writing conventions of the fantasy science fiction and horror genres Lee also engages the meaning of myths of the Greeks particularly Dionysos Egyptians Persians and Indians the dynamics of magic alchemy shamanism gnosticism and reincarnation also surface frequently this critical work examines Lee's highly original applications of such themes and subtexts less prominent themes are also covered as well as her insights into human nature her humor her numerous tributes to literature her comments on writing her games with space time and language and her preoccupation with detail and background also included is an interview with Tanith Lee a bibliography of Lee's work a general bibliography and an index as an orphan growing up in the slums loren read her clandestine copy of jane s story over and over relishing every word but loren is no jane savvy and street smart loren could never be stirred by a man of metal her passion never ignited by an almost human even one designed for pleasure still when the meta corporation does the unthinkable and brings back updated versions of robots past loren knows she must see silver and just like jane it is love at first sight but silver is now verlis if he was perfection before he is now like a god yet he is more human than his creators think or fear while loren doesn t quite trust him she will follow her twice born lover into a battle to control his own destiny one that will reveal to her the most astonishing illusion of all technology and identity in young adult fiction is not a historical study or a survey of narrative plots but takes a more conceptual approach that engages with the central ideas of posthumanism the fragmented nature of posthuman identity the concept of agency as distributed and collective and the role of embodiment in understandings of selfhood
