today s leaders are facing unprecedented challenges that are causing them to quit burnout compromise and even commit suicide this current generation of leaders are functioning in an increasingly complex and rapidly evolving environment dr wade runge understands the unique stress leaders are experiencing in a culture that is calling for leaders to perform at their best at every moment leaders are expected to be available and accessible at any given moment but the real question who is helping them navigate the choppy waters they are experiencing his experience and acumen concerning leadership has been refined out of the need to be able to adapt to adverse conditions we are living in uncertain times that calls for leaders to rise in the midst of chaos dr runge s background from combat in the military to planting churches and helping pastors in crisis has prepared him for this time this transformational book on leadership was written as a manual to help leaders be better prepared for the challenges of the times the five principles take the reader on a journey from the battlefield to the landscape of ministry challenges to better understand why a good shepherd must smell like sheep in order for any organization to thrive in uncertain times it will require sheep and shepherds working together to win this book is for the person who is serious about growing leading and winning in these uncertain times good shepherds smell like sheep is a compelling guide for the challenges of today while empowering leadership to win any battle they may be facing tomorrow

a flock of sheep graze on the edge of a peaceful french forest but these are not your average sheep and in reality the setting is far from tranquil while the herd are the cleverest you will ever encounter thanks to their shepherds regular bedtime stories and previous testing of their detective skills they are unprepared for a fresh threat several sheep have recently disappeared and other creatures have fallen prey to a shadowy figure the theory of a werewolf might be just a wild fairy tale but when a human is killed it becomes clear that even fantasies can be fatal miss maple mopple and the rest of the flock with the help of their goat neighbours follow the werewolf s trail in a desperate attempt to stop the killings with sheep logic courage and concentrated food animal welfare is attracting increasing interest worldwide but particularly from those in developed countries who now have the knowledge and resources to be able to improve the welfare of farm animals the increased attention given to farm animal welfare in the west derives largely from the fact that the relentless pursuit of nancial reward and ef ciency has led to the development of intensive animal production systems that disturb the conscience of many consumers in developing countries human survival is still a daily uncertainty so that provision for animal welfare has to be balanced against human welfare welfare is usually provided for only if it supports the output of the animal be it food work clothing sport or companionship in reality there are resources for all if they are properly husbanded in both developing and developed countries the inequitable division of the world s riches creates physical and psychological poverty for humans and animals alike in many sectors of the world livestock are the world s biggest land user fao 2002 and the population is increasing rapidly to meet the need of an expanding human population populations of farm animals managed by humans are therefore incre ing worldwide and in some regions there is a tendency to allocate fewer resources such as labour to each animal with potentially adverse consequences on the a mals welfare
